Delay Brinkman Case Until Thursday 10 A.M.

A postponement until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock was announced this morning in the trial of the Helen Mae Brinkman manslaughter case because of "recent developments" which caused both the defense counsel, Sherwood E. Davis, and District Attorney Howard C. St. John to concur in the move.

County Judge Louis G. Bruhn granted the postponement and cautioned the jurors not to discuss, read or listen to any comment on the case until it was finally submitted to them.

Schick Decision Seen Repudiation Of Politics Charge

District Attorney Howard C. St. John indicated today that he will ask grand jury consideration of a city court condition, which he holds is harmful to the judiciary.

The recent resignation of Special City Judge John J. Schick, St. John said in a letter to Mayor Edwin F. Radel, is an acknowledgment of the district attorney's "interest in justice," and he cites judicial ethics pertinent to Schick's candidacy for the office of district attorney.

Pleased With Move
The letter written Sept. 8 to the mayor said:

"Although I have never received an answer to my communication of Aug. 29, concerning the bad situation which existed in the city court, I have just heard a report announcing the resignation of Special City Judge John J. Schick. I am pleased to note that my letter has had the beneficial effect to the public of resolving the dilemma, which had existed in that court prior to his resignation.

Farmers Can Sign Up Now For Conservation Reserve

The sign-up in Ulster County for the 1959 Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank is now open at the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office is Kingston, Chairman John S. Geary announced today.

The Conservation Reserve is being opened early this year because the other phase of the Soil Bank — The Acreage Reserve — will not be in effect in 1959.

2. Additional incentives, including a payment of 10 per cent above normal rates, for farmers to put all eligible land on their farms in the program for at least 5 years.

300 Discuss School Tax At Chambers

Approximately 300 residents of School District No. 8, town of Ulster, attended a meeting Monday night at the Chambers School to discuss school taxes and other problems.

They turned out in response to an advertisement in The Freeman Saturday which asked if the taxpayer had received his school tax bill. "If you're not satisfied . . . attend meeting at Chambers School at 8 p. m. Monday, Sept. 8th," the advertisement stated. It was placed by a citizen of the township.

Chairman John Vines of the board of trustees of the district read and discussed the budget item by item, answering numerous questions from the audience.

$864,000 Voted in July
The budget, totaling $864,000, was adopted at the annual meeting in July following a public hearing attended by a meager 28 people.

The tax rate for 1958-59 amounts to $97.08 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation. This compares with a budget of $329,207 in 1957-58 and a tax rate of $73.08.

The meeting, held in the school cafeteria, lasted until midnight.

3-Year Hike, $51.65
The tax rate in 1955 was $45.43 per thousand. Since that time it has increased to $51.65 per thousand.

Vines explained that failure to receive certain anticipated state aid due to the adoption of recommendations of the Heald Commission two years ago accounted for part of the increase.

Certain items of the budget were "underestimated," he said. He pointed out that the enrollment had increased by 79 pupils during the past three years, with an additional 26 coming into the school this year from the Whiteport District on a tuition-paying basis.

The annual budget was adopted in July by a vote of 23 to 5.

Hopes for More Interest
Vines said the board was very disappointed at the small turnout for the budget hearing in July and was delighted with the excellent attendance last night.

He expressed the hope that the people of the district would continue to take the same interest in education in the future.

"We would love to have 200 people at the monthly meetings," he said. "It is pleasing to have that kind of attendance." He said the board would always cooperate to the fullest extent in answering questions about school operation and policy.

Community Chest Goal Is $128,651 for Fall Drive

Goal for the Kingston Area Community Chest's Red Feather drive this fall will be $128,651.

This figure was adopted by the Chest's board of directors at a meeting Monday night at the Savings and Loan Association building. It followed the recommendations of the budget committee as reported by N. Jansen Fowler, chairman.

The goal represents an increase of eight and one-half per cent over last year's goal, and about 20 per cent over the amount actually raised last year.

Beginning Date, Sept. 29
Official kick-off date for the campaign was set for Monday, Sept. 29.

The drive is to raise funds for 10 member agencies of the Chest. In reporting the breakdown of the recommended goal, Chairman Fowler stressed the fact that these figures are preliminary estimates of needs for 1959, not binding either upon the Chest or its agencies. The actual allocations are made at the end of the year, when campaign results are known and after the agencies' actual experience for 1958 is known. At that time, Fowler said, each agency will receive a budget hearing and will be given 14-days' notice prior to adoption of the final allocation.

Minimum Needs
Following are the member agencies and the preliminary estimates of minimum needs forming the basis for the goal: Association for the Help of Retarded Children, $3,000; Boys' Club, $9,279; Boy Scouts, $14,500; Girl Scouts, $8,493; Jewish Community Center, $11,800; Salvation Army, $10,395; USO, $1,000; Volunteers of America, $7,300; YMCA, $24,000, and YWCA, $14,124.

War Not Expected By Dulles Warns Red China U. S. Is Ready To Help Chiang

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles hinted today the United States is ready to offer concessions if Red China will renounce the use of force in the Formosa Straits.

Dulles told a news conference he could not go into details in advance of expected diplomatic talks with Red China at Warsaw.

Emphasizes Stand
At the same time, Dulles emphasized again that the United States believes it is essential to the Free World's defense posture in the Far East to maintain a firm stand against Red Chinese threats to conquer Nationalist-held islands in the Formosa Straits.

Dulles indicated that if Red China were to attack today the United States would help the Nationalist defenders, at first logistically and later with American fighting men if the Nationalists were unable to beat back the Communist invaders.

Compares Situation
But Dulles refused to spell out precisely what the United States would do in any given circumstance.

He stressed that despite the tension he expected no war. He acknowledged, however, that the situation could be compared with Korea and the blockade of Berlin.

Dulles told reporters U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam in Warsaw got in touch today with Red China's Ambassador Wang Ping-Nan. He said Beam told Wang the United States was ready any time to start talking. No precise date was suggested.

Different Approach
Dulles said he hopes to work out in these talks a modus vivendi—a method for getting along.

In reply to a question, Dulles said the United States would seek agreement along detailed, specific lines instead of along general lines as in past fruitless talks with Red China.

Dulles said that if the Chinese Reds agreed to a meaningful renunciation of force, that would alter the situation. Consequences would flow from this, he said, but he could not spell them out in advance because they involved relations with the rights of an ally—Nationalist China.

Not Up to U. S.
Dulles was asked whether the United States would recommend evacuation of Quemoy, Matsu and other offshore islands held by Nationalist China if the Peiping regime agreed to renounce force.

He replied the United States could not itself negotiate the future of the offshore islands since they belong to Nationalist China. But he said a Red Chinese renunciation of force, if effective and dependable, would certainly be a new element.

Ruling Seen Due Shortly On Pine Hill

An appeal to stay a ruling of Ontario Central School transferring 31 pupils to the Pine Hill Common School was filed with the State Education Department Monday morning.

Attorney Martin J. Rubin of Phoenixia, representing parents of 27 of the 31 children involved in the transfer, presented the appeal. A ruling is anticipated within a week or so.

Second Opening Is Set October 9th For By-Pass Bids

Bids are due to be opened for the second time in Albany Oct. 9 for a project that failed to attract bidders last month; the widening and resurfacing of 1.44-mile section of the Route 9W East Chester Street by-pass, it was announced today.

Estimate $250,000 Now
A previously estimated cost of $216,000 was apparently considered too low by contractors, and John W. Johnson, state public works superintendent, has readjusted for bids at a new estimated cost of $250,000.

The new section will have a 24-foot wide asphalt concrete pavement.

Bids will be opened on the same day for 24 other state road projects with an estimated total cost of more than $25,000,000. Two will be on the Long Island Expressway, Nassau County, estimated to cost $12,185,000; one on the Southern State Parkway, Suffolk County, estimated at $3,644,000, and another on the Empire Stateway near Binghamton estimated at $2,510,000.

JOUAM Parley Names Lord as State Officer

A hundred delegates from all parts of New York State elected new officers of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics today, including a Kingston man as associate judge.

He is Charles M. Lord of 23 Voorhees Avenue, superintendent of the uptown post office, who has long been active in JOUAM affairs. He served as state conductor last year.

Lord was employed by the Kingston Post Office in 1926 and has held practically every post since that time. He was promoted to station superintendent on Dec. 15, 1956.

He is a former well-known musician and trumpet player.

Others Elected
Other state JOUAM officers elected today:

James Tilton, Middle Village, state councilor; Emory Underwood, Northport, L. I., state vice councilor; Henry Stoerkel, Middle Village, state secretary; James Hill, Southampton, L. I., treasurer; Joseph Koenig, Glen Dale, conductor; Carl Minnerly, Port Jervis, warden; Edward Green Jr., Greenport, L. I., inside sentinel; Percy Daniel, Northport, outside sentinel; Raymond Sandford, Bridgehampton, state chaplain; Ernest L. Dieckhoff, Brooklyn, national representative.

Binghamton Next
The next convention will be held in Binghamton, Kingston, bidding for a second successive convention, was second choice.

The order voted to participate in the Hudson-Champlain celebration next year, adopted a resolution to expedite the deportation of aliens illegally in the United States, a resolution to keep the immigration department within the justice department, and a resolution to speed up deportation of aliens convicted of crimes and ordered deported by the courts. Some aliens ordered deported continue to reside in this country for a number of years, it was reported.

Urge Better Schools
There was also a final resolution urging the continuing improvement of the educational system and the quality of teachers in the public school system.

Former Mayor Frederick H. Stang told delegates at the banquet last night in the Governor Clinton Hotel that government, no matter at what level, is what we make it and what we're satisfied with. He deplored apathy—"always let George do it"—then criticizing George.

Stang said voting is a privilege but that many people think it's something to do on election day "if there's nothing else to do."

Urges Observance of Ideals
He congratulated the order as the oldest patriotic, fraternal association in the United States, praised its high and lofty ideals and urged members to "live up (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Ewig Takes Oath As Special Judge, Cashin Presides

Arthur B. Ewig, a former corporation counsel and county attorney, was sworn in as special city judge today by Federal Judge John M. Cashin, his former law partner.

Mayor Edwin F. Radel yesterday named Ewig to the post to succeed John J. Schick, who resigned. Schick said he resigned so he could "be free to vigorously pursue my campaign for election to the office of district attorney of Ulster County."

Schick and City Judge Aaron E. Klein had been asked to disqualify themselves in two city court cases, but the former special city judge made no mention of the resultant controversy in announcing his resignation.

Present at the swearing in this morning were Mayor Radel, Mrs. Ewig, two daughters, Mrs. Charles S. Ronder and Mrs. Lewis Wechsler, Judge Klein, former Special City Judge Schick, City Clerk Raymond A. McAndrew, Assessor Sam N. Mann, and City Treasurer Orris R. Riehl.

Seeks Recognition
The withdrawal demand was coupled with a fresh call by Khrushchev for U.S. diplomatic recognition of Red China.

Administration officials are sizing up the recognition call and the withdrawal demand as a Soviet-Red China power gambit aimed at throwing the Formosa area crisis into the United Nations with a view to winning a U.N. seat for the Peiping regime.

Success in that maneuver would mean Nationalist China as a U.N. member. The United States is committed to defense of the Nationalist government, it already is conveying Chiang Kai-shek supplies to heavily bombed Quemoy, offshore island bastion of the Formosa Chinese.

The summer White House said Eisenhower will reply to Khrushchev's 4,000-word letter when he has had a chance to study it.

Advice Is To Moscow As Reply Khrushchev Had Sought Removal Of U. S. Forces

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President Eisenhower wants the Soviet Union to restrain Red China's territorial expansion ambitions in the dangerous Far East crisis.

A proposal that the Chinese Communists be cautioned strongly by their Moscow allies was the summer White House reaction late Monday to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's demand that American forces be hauled out of the trouble-ridden Formosa Strait area.

Warns on Attack
Khrushchev, in a letter Eisenhower received at his vacation headquarters, also asserted the Soviet Union would regard an attack on Red China as an attack on the Soviet Union.

The United States came back with an accusation that the Peiping government has taken unprompted military action against the Chinese Nationalists in heavy bombardment of the offshore island of Quemoy.

Moscow made Khrushchev's message public just four hours after Red China's Mao Tse-tung had expressed hope in Peiping that talks with the United States at the ambassadorial level would begin as soon as possible in Warsaw.

More Anxious to Talk
The White House last Saturday proposed Poland's capital as the site after the Chinese Communists suggested negotiations looking toward Far East peace.

The general reaction at both the President's headquarters and in Washington seemed to be that the Soviet Union and Red China alike are much more anxious to talk than fight.

U.S. officials let it be known swiftly but privately that compliance with Khrushchev's demand for withdrawal of the 7th Fleet and other American forces from the Formosa area just isn't in the picture at all under circumstances now existing there.

The officials said the United States won't be cowed or browbeaten.

Seeks Recognition
The withdrawal demand was coupled with a fresh call by Khrushchev for U.S. diplomatic recognition of Red China.

Muskie Elected, First Maine Democrat In Senate; Party Retains Governorship

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Maine Democrats won a U.S. Senate seat for the first time in 47 years and rejoiced today over other major triumphs in the state's final first-in-the-nation election.

The Maine outcome often is regarded as a weathervane as to how the wind may blow in the general November elections.

Gov. Edmund S. Muskie ousted Republican Sen. Frederick G. Payne by a 3-2 margin in a contest bearing undertones of the Bernard Goldfine case. Payne, like presidential assistant Sherman Adams, has acknowledged receiving favors from the Boston industrialist.

Emphasizing their triumph, the Democrats picked up a seat in the House of Representatives and retained the governor's office being vacated by Muskie. That gave them four of the five major offices at stake. One Democrat and one Republican won re-election to the House.

The election—the last to be held ahead of the rest of the nation—was watched by politicians of both parties for trends and possible campaign issues in the other states.

Muskie was the first Democrat ever sent to the Senate by the normally Republican electorate of the Pine Tree State. The Legislature chose the last Democratic senator in 1911 — before senators were elected by popular ballot.

Clinton A. Clauson, former mayor of Waterville, took the governorship by a close margin over Horace A. Hildreth, a GOP former governor.

James C. Oliver, a Cape Elizabeth real estate man, beat out Republican Rep. Robert Hale, who was seeking a ninth term in the House.

Democrat Frank M. Coffin, a Lewiston lawyer, won re-election over Neil S. Bishop, Stockton Springs farmer. Coffin, when first elected two years ago, was the first Maine Democrat to serve in the House in 22 years.

Rep. Clifford G. McIntire, a Perham potato farmer, was the only Republican in major office to survive the Democratic wave. He won re-election over Gerald J. Grady, a professor of government at the University of Maine.

Complete, unofficial returns from the state's 632 voting precincts gave:

For senator: Muskie 171,942; Payne 112,178.

For governor: Clauson 145,619; Hildreth 134,998.

For Congress, 1st Dist.: Oliver 54,630; Hale 51,702.

Congress, 2nd Dist.: Coffin 59,698; Bishop 37,014.

Congress, 3rd Dist.: McIntire 38,826; Grady 31,354.

August Is Record Month Here With 181 Births Listed

August, with seven sets of twins and one of triplets, scored a record total of 181 births.

This was six more than the previous high recorded in October, 1956.

Three of the sets of twins were born between Aug. 12 and 15, another record locally. The registrar has recorded 13 sets of twins, to date, in the year.

The triplets, Karl Michael, Kent Gerard and Karin Margaret were born Aug. 8 to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Krajick, of 91 Plainfield Street.

Last month's birth record total was 53 above the August, 1957 total and 16 more than the July, 1958 total.

Ridgely Holsteins Are Recognized as Gold Medal Dams

Two registered Holstein cows at Ridgely Farms, Stone Ridge, have been recognized as Gold Medal Dams by The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Both qualified for "super brood cow" honors on the outstanding type and production of their offspring.

The Gold Medal recognition of Nuway Inka Hilda 2440480 (VG) is based on three of three daughters with official production records averaging 15,562 lbs. of milk and 599 lbs. of butterfat on a two milkings a day, 305 day mature equivalent basis.

One of the three is classified "Very Good" the second highest designation in the official Holstein type program. The others are notch lower in the "Good Plus" bracket.

Nuway Inka Hilda was bred by D. W. Morris & Sons, West Winfield, N. Y. and entered the Ridgely Farms' herd in 1946.

Baker Farm Dame Dungenar 2526960 (VG)—the second Gold Medal Dam—has three of four offspring meeting both type and production standards.

Her three officially tested daughters have a mature equivalent production average of 17,075 lbs. of milk and 591 lbs. of butterfat.

Typewise, one daughter is classified "Very Good" with the remaining two "Good Plus."

Baker Farm Dame Dungenar was bred by the Baker Farm, Exeter, New Hampshire. She was successively owned by Harold S. Goldsmith, Wilton, Connecticut and Frank Miller and Son, Copake, New York before entering the Ridgely herd in 1950.

Both of the new "super brood cows" is officially classified "Very Good". Each has an official lifetime production record of well over 100,000 lbs. of milk—over four times the total career output of the average dairy animal.

The Gold Medal Dam program was adopted by the national Holstein organization last year. It parallels a long-established plan for the recognition of outstanding sires. To date, more than 100 Gold Medal Dam awards have been made with seven of them going to Ridgely Farms.

payment rate per-acre for all land offered for the program, and farmers will have the opportunity to offer their land at less than these "ceiling" rates. In cases where participation in the program might exhaust available funds in a county, or more land is offered than it would be desirable to contract in one year, offers at lower-than-maximum rates would be more certain of acceptance.

The rates of annual payments for individual farms, upon application of farmers will be set by county ASC committees on the basis of average land on the farm, taking into consideration productivity, agricultural value, and rental rates for similar land in the locality. Individual farm rates may vary above and below the average annual payment rate established for the county. An upper limit of no more than 20 per cent of the value of the land on the individual farm is required by law.

The regular maximum payment rate may be earned by putting in the program land during the past two years (1957 and 1958) has been in Soil Bank "Base" crops (grains, cash and other row crops) or from which time hay has been harvested for hay or silage during the same period and a corresponding reduction is made in Soil Bank base crops.

A lower rate of per-acre payment, 50 per cent of the regular maximum rate for the farm, may be earned by putting additional "non-diversion" land in the program. Non-diversion land does not require a corresponding reduction in Soil Bank "Base" crops.

Regulations Given

On farms with a Soil Bank "Base" of over 30 acres, for each acre put in the Reserve at the regular rental rate (requiring a corresponding reduction in Soil Bank "Base" crops) one acre of land may be entered at the "non-diversion" rate. On farms with a "base" of 30 acres or less, the farmer may put eligible cropland in the program at the "non-diversion" rate without having to reduce his acreage of Soil Bank "Base" crops.

On farms with a "base" of 30 acres or less, the farmer may put eligible cropland in the program at the "non-diversion" rate without having to reduce his acreage of Soil Bank "Base" crops.

Under the incentive plan to get all cropland on individual farms in the program, farmers who put all their eligible land under the Conservation Reserve contract, will earn the full regular rate they accept for their farms for both Soil Bank "base" land and "non-diversion" land. In addition, they will receive the extra 10 per cent for "whole farm" participation.

The maximum rate, or the higher rate for whole farm participation will be the ceiling rate for a farm. On farms where only part of the eligible land is put in the program, the annual rental rate will be lower than this "Ceiling" if the land designated for the reserve is below the average of the farm in productivity.

Eligible land includes: (1) Any land from which a crop was harvested or which was in regular crop rotation in 1958 and (2) land from which time hay was harvested for hay silage in either 1957 or 1958. Tame hay is defined as "a stand of perennial grasses or legumes normally established for hay by land preparation and seeding."

Non-eligible land includes: (1) That planted to small fruits, vineyards, nursery stock, orchard or nut trees, and land between rows of these crops; (2) any land owned by the Federal Government; (3) land in noncrop open pasture, range, woods, or in the farmstead.

Other phases of 1959 Reserve —contractual arrangements, protection of tenants and sharecroppers, changes and termination, and violation penalties are similar to those in effect up to this time.

In addition to the per-acre annual rental payments, participating farmers receive a payment covering a substantial part of the cost of establishing an approved soil conservation practice on the land they put in the program. The county ASC office has a list of approved soil, water, forestry and wildlife conservation practices, participating farmers may select those they wish to carry out on their own land.

The first step in the sign-up is for the farmer who is interested in the program to come to the ASC County office and request that annual rental payment rates be established for his farm. This must be done on or before Oct. 10, 1958. At the same time, the farmer should bring with him information to be used by the committee to establish rates for his farm. Facts needed are acreage, yields of the three principal crops on that farm for the past two years and acreages for other land use on the farm. Further information on the 1959 Soil Bank Program can be obtained by contacting H. T. Wurzing, County Office Mgr. at the Ulster County ASC Office 54 John Street, Kingston, N. Y.

ONE PUMP, SIX FUELS—Howard S. Pangburn, (left) president of Kingston Water Board hears Sunoco dealer William Zates of Foxhall and Flatbush Avenues explain how a newly-developed Sun Oil Company blending pump dispenses six grades of motor fuel. The blends range in octane from Sun's standard Blue Sunoco 200 to Blue Sunoco 260, the highest octane motor fuel available to motorists. The revolutionary pump operates automatically simply by setting a dial to produce a gasoline of predetermined octane quality. The new system is known as custom blending and permits motorists in the area to select motor fuels matching the octane requirements of their cars.

U.S. Presses Soviet For Technical Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is trying to revive Russian interest in east-west technical talks aimed at drafting safeguards to prevent surprise attacks.

In a note delivered to the Kremlin Monday, the State Department pressed the Soviet government for an early reply to a U. S. note of five weeks ago.

The new note suggested the discussions begin two months after Russia agrees to them, and cited "the necessity of careful preparations if the proposed technical talks are to be of greatest value."

Although Russia had accepted the general idea of the talks, she had not replied to the earlier U. S. suggestion that they be started the first week of October.

Congressman Dies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Herman P. Eberharter (D-Pa.) died today from the effects of a stroke. He was 66.

The congressman had been in a hospital since Wednesday.

The veteran legislator had represented Pennsylvania's 28th Dist. covering Allegheny County and part of Pittsburgh since 1936. He was a member of the House Ways and Means Committee.

A widower, Eberharter is survived by two sons, Herman P., 22, and James Jacob, 17.

3 to Face Charges Of Strangling Woman

MONTICELLO, N. Y. (AP)—Three cherry pickers are back here today to face charges, that they strangled their 72-year-old rooming house landlady.

One of the three, Richard Fonca, 38, was arrested in his Manhattan room, Monday. The two others, Pedro Luis Corchado, 20, and Santos Pabellon Martinez, 42, were picked up by New Jersey state police at Hammonton and waived extradition.

The three were returned Monday to Monticello where Mrs. Balbina A. Pulido, a widow, was found last Sept. 2, bound, gagged and strangled in her rooming house. She had been raped and robbed of a small amount of money, said Monticello authorities.

Negroes Planning Moves to Promote Gotham Integration

NEW YORK (AP)—Two groups of Negro parents are planning legal battles to obtain transfer of their children from the predominantly Negro schools into ones which have a greater proportion of white students.

The parents kept 21 of their children home as schools opened Monday. The children had been assigned to nearly all-Negro schools. The parents want their children assigned to integrated schools out of their neighborhoods.

Although segregation is outlawed in New York City schools, a pattern of segregation exists. Schools in predominantly all-Negro neighborhoods often wind up with few white students.

One group, representing 15 children, is in Harlem. The parents have hired a teacher to instruct their children.

Meanwhile, a lawyer representing the group plans to challenge the school zoning regulations and a recent State Supreme Court ruling which upheld the board of education. The court held that allowing parents to choose the schools their children would attend would produce chaos.

The other group is in Brooklyn. A spokesman there said white children in the neighborhood have been taken by bus for years to an integrated school. The spokesman asks the same treatment for the six Negro children being kept from school in the neighborhood by their parents.

Woman Faces 15 Years

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Mrs. Vera Gaessler, 54, faces a possible sentence of up to 15 years in prison for the fatal stabbing of her mother-in-law on last St. Valentine's Day.

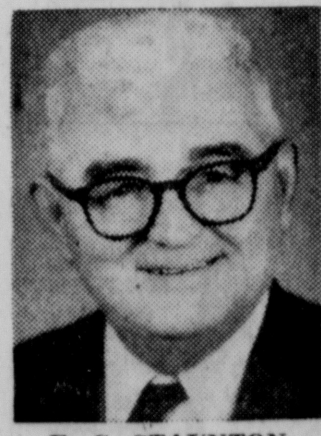

She pleaded guilty Monday in Erie County Court to a charge of second-degree manslaughter. Judge Burke I. Burke set Sept. 22 for sentencing.

The victim, Mrs. Clara C. Gaessler, 76, was stabbed with a kitchen knife during an argument between the two women.

A grand jury had indicted the defendant on a charge of first-degree manslaughter.

Varied Musical Tempos Set for Pageant of Drums

Music that runs the gamut from a pulsating march to the dreamy tempo of "Star Dust" will be featured by the corps participating in the Pageant of Drums scheduled Saturday at Dietz Stadium at 8 p. m.

Joyce-Schrick Post 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars and its corps — the Red Devils — are sponsoring the event, expected to attract a capacity audience.

Corps entered include the famed Reilly Raiders; Lt. Norman Prince Drum & Bugle Corps of Boston, Mass.; the Colonial Cavaliers — Port Ewen Drum & Bugle Corps; Archer Epler Post 979 of Upper Darby, Pa., and the Fort Edward Vagabonds.

Praises Music

Leslie Munson, chairman, avows that drum and bugle corps enthusiasts will be presented with some of the finest music ever heard at such an event.

Typical of the musical versatility which will be heard are the Reilly Raiders. The only corps to win both the VFW and American Legion national titles and recent winner of the VFW national title at the New York City convention, the Reilly Raiders present outstanding arrangements — from Fred Waring to "Irish Eyes," the latter selection one of the only two holdovers from last year.

Among their presentations are "Kerry Pipers," to which they dance a Highland fling; "Irish Eyes" and into concert with "On the Square." Concert is "Star Dust," with a single soprano horn out front playing melody while the other 38 horns play background.

Every man in the corps is a veteran of at least five years with the unit and drum corps critics are most generous in their accolades for the Raiders.

The Lt. Norman Prince unit has a repertoire which includes "Music Maestro Please," and moves off the line with "Wonderful," and "Reminds Me of You."

Other selections include "Strike Up the Band," "America I Love You," "People Will Say We're in Love," and "Hindustan."

Port Ewen Competes

These are only a few of the brilliant musical pieces—all accompanied by awe-inspiring marching and maneuvering — which will be played at the VFW musical spectacular.

While the Colonial Cavaliers have been seen and heard many times in the area, it was noted that Saturday's pageant will mark the first time the Port Ewen corps has competed in a local competition.

Munson said a few reserved tickets are still on sale, and general admission tickets also have been placed on sale at the VFW Home, Delaware Avenue.

GRIM ACCURACY
Accuracy is something we usually prize. But no one can take any satisfaction from the fact that the National Safety Council accurately forecast the number of Americans who would die on the nation's streets and highways over the last long summer weekend.

That we can come close to the mark in this business of predicting death ought to chill every one of us whenever we slip behind the wheel of a car.

The morning of the day that weekend began, some 420 people, young and old, were following their individual patterns of living in all their rich variety. In a matter of hours or a very few days, they were all dead. The patterns were broken. Not only they but all who knew and loved them had suffered irreparable loss.

Tragedy injects itself into our lives in many ways, at many points. But what makes this particular kind of tragedy so hard to digest is its inevitability. The statistics in highway fatality forecasts seem to have a will of their own; they will not be denied.

How many summer holidays like this must we endure before we find a way to stop the inevitable coming of death on the road?

Since distance lends enchantment, the moon seems to be in danger of losing its romantic appeal.

THE WATCHFUL EYE
Quite frequently the wisdom of an action is recognized with wonder that it hadn't been taken before. The requirement that the suggested retail price and other data about new automobiles be displayed on the windshield falls into that category. This new legal requirement goes into effect on Oct. 1.

In recent years prices, in certain instances, had been inflated by some dealers in order to make trade-in values look disproportionately good. The purchasing public in the market for a new car had little to go on by way of standard price. The prices quoted for the same model automobile often varied widely among dealers in the same locality. The new regulation should effectively curb "price packing," though legitimate discounts may still be offered.

One sobering thought comes to mind when considering this whole matter. Why hadn't the automobile industry, which plays such an enormous role in American life, policed itself? It is unfortunate that the pricing rules had to come from Congress rather than by the action of automobile manufacturers themselves. The new regulation is further evidence that government can serve the public interest by keeping a watchful eye on business practices.

DON'T MINIMIZE SPEED
The question before the house is this: Is the preoccupation with speed as a cause of highway accidents obscuring better ways to reduce such carnage as that which occurred during the recent Labor Day weekend? The question is not a new one, but it has been raised again persuasively in a magazine article by John D. Williams, head of the Rand Corporation's mathematics division.

It is Williams' belief that obstructions to the smooth flow of traffic, rather than speed, constitute the chief villain in the highway drama. He would focus more attention on such things as improved signals, additional separated traffic lanes, better ways to prevent and unscramble traffic jams, and widespread use of personal crash protection devices—harnesses, helmets, and so forth.

This is a constructive approach. But there would be harm in fostering the notion that speed isn't so bad, after all. Speed does kill. It reduces human reaction time below the safety limit. That is a good thing to keep in mind while we are busy smoothing out the flow of traffic.

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
NORTHERN SEGREGATION

Segregation is as serious a problem in the Northern cities as it is in the South, but it is of a different nature. In the North, segregation occurs by both a voluntary and involuntary process, namely, that many groups either prefer to live close to each other or do so through circumstances beyond their control. Half a century ago, most Jews in New York lived on the East Side and in Chicago on the West Side. Naturally their children went to a neighborhood public school. Chinese in New York or San Francisco lived in Chinatown because in those days they preferred it that way. Arabic-speaking people in New York live in a section of Brooklyn, just as the early Italian immigrants settled in the general vicinity of Old St. Peter's Cathedral and the Negroes began moving into Harlem which they took over completely, as they took over areas in other cities.

Sometimes ghettos are voluntary and have to do with the incidence of particular houses of worship, or butcher shops or groceries. Immigrants usually do not know English and have to live where the language they do know is spoken.

Negroes find it difficult to break through ghetto barriers because of the color bar. Thus, certain public schools become 100 per cent Negro, as though the children were segregated by law. For some unaccountable reason among the Northern liberals who are opposed to segregation, the teachers in such schools are often 100 per cent Negro.

The Board of Education of New York City has acknowledged a fact which no Northern city could any longer disclaim and has appointed a Commission on Integration, which, as such commissions do, has issued a report in which appears the following:

"To begin with . . . the segregated school child is the product of the segregated home in the segregated neighborhood which, partly because of its segregation is economically, socially, and culturally underprivileged. Hence, to make up for these disadvantages, the minority child needs more and better education, more individual attention, more psychological and vocational guidance."

This is not quite understandable. Does this mean that he is to have better schools than the white child? Does this mean that the Negro is not to be put on an equal basis with the white child, but that the white child is to be discriminated against? Is the immigrant Italian or the refugee Hungarian or the lowly Chinese child not to have the advantages of a Negro or Puerto Rican child?

For purposes of confusion, Negro and Puerto Rican schools are designated as X schools. These schools are to be treated separately and distinctly, which in simple English means that they remain segregated even though an attempt is made to make them superior. The report states partly in italics:

"To raise the level of academic achievement in the X schools the sub-commission recommends the development by the Superintendent of Schools and his professional staff of an intensive educational program aimed at this objective. It is noted that the implementation of this recommendation may entail in some instances the re-allocation of classroom time, the adoption of special techniques for increasing teaching effectiveness, and the implementation of the recommendations by the sub-commission on Guidance, Educational Stimulation and Placement concerning the identification, stimulation and guidance of students with superior intellectual potentialities; also the recommendations of the sub-commission on Community Relations and Information for the education of parents and the promotion of school-community understanding."

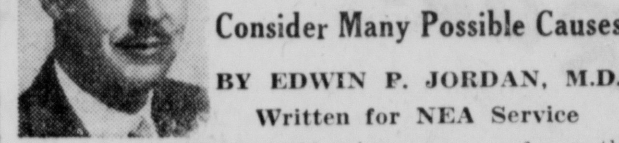

Governor Orval Faubus of Arkansas would probably be willing to settle for such a program, which clearly means that the segregated school continues (X schools) for Negroes and Puerto Ricans but these schools are to be superior to those for white children.

The Commission further recommends:

" . . . That the Board make a deliberate effort to recruit non-white and Spanish-speaking personnel for guidance services."

Why not also recruit Italian-speaking, Arabic-speaking, Yiddish-speaking, Hungarian-speaking personnel in the schools? About 50 nationalities live in a city like New York; probably fewer in Chicago, Philadelphia or Los Angeles. But the problem is everywhere the same, namely, that newer immigrants do not speak English and therefore there is an hiatus in communications between parent and teacher.

This problem is not segregated to Arkansas; it can be found in any town you can think of. Copyright, 1958, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Victim of Burning Tongue Must Consider Many Possible Causes
BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Burning sensations of the tongue and mouth are evidently extremely common.
Q—Is there any hope for the relief of a burning tongue?—Mrs. H. G.

A—It is claimed that this sensation may be related to general diseases, such as pernicious anemia, diabetes, vitamin A deficiency, or conditions in which there is a lessening of salivary output. Visible signs of irritation of the delicate mucous membrane are commonly present.

In later years, dryness of the mouth resulting from lessened secretion of saliva is particularly common. Of course, local conditions in the mouth may also be responsible. Excessive smoking and irritating substances in food or drink are other possibilities.

Q—I acquired a serious bronchial condition from mustard gas in the First World War. When the doctors said they could do nothing for me in 1950, I moved to a dry area of California. However, I seem to have less trouble in a moist area of California and wonder how this could be.—W.H.

A—Conditions such as bronchitis and sometimes are sometimes affected favorably and sometimes unfavorably by change of climate. Apparently no one can tell in advance what climate will be of benefit, since there is a great deal of individual difference.

Hence physicians frequently advise a person who is making such a change try several climates before deciding to settle. The one to choose is the one which seems to give the greatest amount of relief.

Q—Until recently I was always said to have a good figure and was in demand for modeling. I have been married for four and one-half years and have two children. After each of these was born my breasts became smaller and smaller and now I have become the butt of jokes about flat-chested women. What to do?—Mrs. J.

A—This is a curious experience, but one which I judge is fairly common. The giving of appropriate hormones occasionally produces a temporary stimulation of the growth of breast tissue, but is generally inadvisable.

I fear there is nothing which can be recommended as a satisfactory and safe procedure in a situation such as this.

Q—Can one take too much orange juice? In the past year I have been drinking at least eight ounces a day but find myself breaking out with eczema.—Mrs. A. E.

A—This sounds as though some kind of allergy to orange juice was present. Also some people find that orange juice irritates the digestive tract.

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The problem which the United States faces in deciding on military aid to Chiang Kai-shek's defense of Quemoy and Matsu has parallels. It is fundamentally the same problem that the United States had formerly in Korea and Vietnam. It is the same problem, with variations, in Lebanon and Jordan.

It is basically whether to recognize the realities of international power politics and to give in to the idea that might makes right in coup or conquest.

Under this postulate, the easy thing to do is to admit that President Chiang Kai-shek is a defeated generalissimo of China. He has been driven out of his homeland to the island of Taiwan or Formosa. He is given little chance of ever returning to head the government of 600 million Chinese people.

There is no more economic justification for Quemoy and Matsu being held and governed by Nationalist China from Taiwan than there would be for Staten Island, Nantucket, Key West or the Catalinas to be held by Soviet Russia.

THE USEFULNESS of Quemoy and Matsu to Taiwan today is purely military, as an outpost or first line of defense. The question of whether Taiwan could be held if the Red Chinese launched an all-out attack on the island is militarily debatable.

And yet, to maintain the Chinese Nationalist government on Taiwan, the United States has advanced nearly 1.5 billion dollars in economic aid loans and grants. To this must be added unreported hundreds of millions in military assistance and support.

In another even costlier venture of the same sort, the United States has spent 1.8 billion dollars and sustained 142 casualties to defend the Republic of South Korea, contribute to its rehabilitation and future security.

No American troops were involved, but the United States has spent another billion dollars in Indo-China for its economic survival and defense against Communism aggression.

Neither the Korean nor Indo-Chinese wars were won by either side and they settled nothing, so what did the United States get out of the more than four billion dollars it has invested in Korea, Indo-China and Taiwan since 1945?

SOME FEEL that from the viewpoint of practical power politics it would have been better to recognize the realities of these situations and write them off as losses.

The obvious answer given to that question is that any such capitulation would have been a worse surrender than the one which President Eisenhower and the Congressional leaders bawled out the Pentagon brass for reportedly planning.

For the United States to give up in Vietnam, Korea, or Taiwan now would mean giving up next on the Philippines, and then on Japan, into which another four billions have gone.

For safeguarding smaller countries in the Middle East from — until recently — lesser threats of aggression, the carrying charges for U. S. taxpayers have not been so great. They may be stepped up, however, if Nasserism or Communist indirect aggression threaten to take over more of the area.

From the viewpoint of practical power politics it may seem silly to try to bolster the weak government of little Lebanon or the still more tottery kingdom of Jordan — a country which has no real economic reason for existing.

AGAIN, THE EASY thing for United States to do is to look upon the new movement for Arab nationalism as the wave of the future and let it sweep wherever it chooses.

When the United States does that, it sacrifices the principles of not only the United Nations Charter but also of the American Declaration of Independence as well.

These principles include the right of every people to determine their own form of government, to remain independent and to be free from outside aggression.

When the United States goes to the defense of tiny Lebanon, unrealistic Taiwan — or even of Egypt when it is attacked by Britain, France and Israel — this country is aiding other small countries as well. It is writing insurance for the future security of countries like the Philippines, the Sudan, Ethiopia, Israel, Iceland, Greece or Guatemala.

Acheson's Formosa Views Feared Promoting Disunity

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Disunity and defeatism—the curse of the democracies of our times—could bring on a third World War.

At the very time when the President of the United States is acting in accordance with the letter and the spirit of a resolution—adopted in January 1955 by the overwhelming vote of both parties in Congress—that authorized the use of American armed forces to defend Formosa, the wisdom of that decision was openly questioned by the foremost spokesman of the Democratic party on foreign policy—Dean Acheson. The former Secretary of State issued a scathing attack on his own government's policy. His defection from the American position was widely broadcast last Saturday. It was a detailed argument in favor of the Chinese Communist side of the controversy by the same man who withheld American support from the Nationalist government at a critical period when Chiang Kai-shek was fighting for the survival of the free government on the mainland of China.

Khrushchev Took Cue
Just twenty-four hours after the Acheson statement was publicized, Premier Khrushchev boldly demanded the withdrawal of the American armed forces from the Far East and warned that an "attack on Communist China" would be considered "an attack on the Soviet Union."

President Eisenhower lost no time in reminding the Soviet Premier that he should concern himself with the aggressive operations of the Red China regime and restrain his ally, instead of worrying about the defensive tactics of the United States in the Far East. For there hasn't been and isn't the slightest intention on the part of United States forces to "attack" Communist China. As Secretary Dulles said in his statement, authorized by the President after a conference in Newport on Sept. 4, "neither Formosa nor the islands of Quemoy and Matsu have ever been under the authority of the Chinese Communists." He added:

"Since the end of the second World War, a period of over 13 years, they have continuously been under the authority of Free China, that is, the Republic of China."

The statement pointed out that the United States has a mutual assistance treaty with Free China and called attention to the finding in the Congressional resolution of January 1955 that "the possession by friendly governments of the western Pacific is a part of the American interest."

Secretary Dulles reminded the world that the same resolution of Congress—which authorizes the President to employ the armed forces of the United States for the protection of Formosa—also calls for "the securing and protection of such related positions and territories of that area now in friendly hands and the taking of such other measures as he (the President) judges to be required or appropriate in insuring the defense of Formosa,"

"Mischievous Propaganda"
For several days now there has been a mischievous propaganda encouraged inside the United States demanding, in effect, that the President notify the enemy of what his military advisers tell him is the proper course to follow in the detailed military measures to be taken in defense of Formosa and the related island positions.

If this were a major war, such demands would be regarded as plainly out of bounds. Indeed, it is the very spread of the belief that the United States government does not have the backing of the Congress or the people today which is in itself doubtless stimulating Khrushchev and his Chinese ally in Peiping to grow bolder and bolder in testing out American resoluteness and firmness.

Mr. Acheson openly criticizes what Congress did in 1955 and gives the impression that he is advising the Democratic party now to back out on the votes it gave in support of that resolution. He questions the soundness of the statement that a "friendly government" on Formosa is "essential to the vital interests of the United States," and adds:

"Congress certainly has been led to say so. But Congress cannot make something true which is not true. Four times between 1948 and 1950 our highest military authorities concluded that this proposition was not true and did not justify American military action."

And what did Mr. Acheson do at the time? He told the world about our military strategy in a speech at the National Press Club in January 1950, and, six months later, the Communists invaded South Korea because they assumed the United States wouldn't defend Korea inasmuch as Mr. Acheson had publicly said it was outside the "defense" perimeter of the United States.

Says Acheson Switched
Mr. Acheson, however, found it necessary in June 1950 to reverse his previous views as he counseled with Mr. Truman in favor of armed intervention in Korea. The American people suffered nearly 137,000 casualties in the war that followed.

The principle is the same today, but the Eisenhower Administration has chosen to leave no doubt this time that it will fight to defend Formosa. This is an effective way to prevent another war in the Far East, and it would be even more effective if all political-minded spokesmen, instead of publicizing arguments that indicate disunity and defeatism, would stand behind their own government in this critical hour.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Man, lord of the Earth, may turn out to be one of the bums of the universe.

He is boss of the circling mud-ball he dwells on. But it is a pretty small potato in the awesome garden of the sky, and man himself may rate only as a minor two-legged insect in the vaster scheme of things.

To most of us, the idea of life on other planets is a pleasant fiction of science writers. We laugh at cartoons showing little green-eyed bug-and-manlike creatures landing here in space ships and demanding, "Take me to your leader."

More Sobering Picture
A more sobering picture is given by an eminent astronomer, Dr. Harlow Shapley, in the Saturday Review.

Dr. Shapley is no alarmist about any imminent invasion from Mars or Venus, where he doubts any advanced form of life exists. But in a way he is much more alarming than any science-fiction writer.

Does life exist on any other planet? In the huge theater of the heavens, Dr. Shapley believes it reasonable to assume there is life on at least 100 million planets, and, more likely, on perhaps 100 trillion planets.

Visualizes Other Forms
What kind of life? Probably many forms we are familiar with here on Earth. But Dr. Shapley can visualize others. Trees that walk, for example, and animals which, weary of mobility, may from time to time put down roots into the soil and vegetate for a while.

There may even exist higher forms of life than man which have developed senses beyond his own five limited avenues to knowledge—taste, sight, scent, touch and hearing.

"We may be intellectual minims in the life of the universe," says Dr. Shapley, who seems overly cheerful at the prospect man is a planetary ignoramus.

New Light on Situation
His chilling assessment puts a new light on the whole situation. All along we have thought of our neighbors from way up there as freaks. And it may turn out we are the freaks.

If they arrive here before we go there, will they come as friends? Or will they, perhaps seize us for use as food for their pets, bait to go fishing, or live toys to entertain their children?

The mundane fears do not disturb Dr. Shapley, who thinks the human ego could do with a little deflating.

"We cannot escape humility," he says, "and as groping philosophers and scientists we are thankful for the mysteries that still lie beyond our grasp."

Dr. Shapley can go on being as thankful as he wants to. Frankly, we aren't at all.

If a stranger alights from a flying saucer in our vicinity, we plan to throw a rock at him, rush to the nearest phone and call John Foster Dulles—collect.

Evening Courses To Be Offered at Dutchess College

Dutchess Community College will offer to area residents this fall an evening education program consisting of some 30 courses, Dr. James F. Hall, president, announced today. Course offerings will be in the fields of business and secretarial training, mathematics, basic sciences, electricity, foreign languages, art, speech, English, history, philosophy, government and psychology.

Registration for the evening and extension divisions is scheduled for Sept. 22 through 26, 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. and 7 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. The college will also be open for registration Saturday, Sept. 27 from 9 a. m. to 12 noon. Classes will begin Monday, Sept. 29.

Dr. Hall pointed out that through the college's evening program working people and other adults will be able to undertake a course of study leading to a college degree or they may enroll in individual courses according to their personal needs and interests.

Community colleges in many parts of the country are developing rich and varied evening programs are providing adults with unprecedented opportunities to continue their education on a part-time basis, said Dr. Hall. It is the intention of the Board of Trustees of Dutchess Community College to provide similar opportunities to residents in the area.

Dr. Hall called attention to several fall term courses which may be of particular interest to prospective evening students. In response to many requests and in recognition of the country's need for language specialists, elementary Russian is being offered Wednesday evenings from 7:15 to 10 p. m. Two courses in art, one in the history of art and the other in studio art techniques are being offered. Courses in college algebra and calculus as well as engineering physics and chemistry will meet the needs of some of the students interested in engineering.

Courses in American Government, History of Western Civilization, Philosophy and Man in Society will also be offered. A bulletin offering detailed in-

75 Scholarships Are Available at New Paltz College

A total of 75 scholarship grants are available at the State University Teachers College, New Paltz, for certified teachers who wish to take academic Year Extension Courses at New Paltz.

Made available through the New York State Education Department, these scholarships cover full tuition to enable certified mathematics and science teachers to enroll in refresher courses and to familiarize themselves with modern concepts of science.

Extension courses are being offered at New Paltz, beginning Sept. 24, include classes in physics and earth science for the secondary school teachers, and classes in mathematics for the elementary school teachers.

Classes will be held during the late afternoon, in the evening, or on Saturday, to enable teachers to do additional study while holding regular teaching positions.

All interested teachers may write to Dr. Richard F. Klitz, director of extension, State University Teachers College, New Paltz, as soon as possible for additional information. Dr. Klitz stressed the importance of early inquiry, because the completed applications must be received before Sept. 15.

Accountants Will Hold Dinner and Meeting Sept. 15

George E. Meyers, management consultant of Waban, Mass., will be principal speaker at a regular monthly dinner meeting of the Mid-Hudson Chapter of National Association of Accountants to be held Monday, Sept. 15, at the Nelson House, Poughkeepsie, at 6:30 p. m. His subject will be "Maintenance, Planning and Control."

Meyers specializes in the control and reduction of maintenance costs and allied expenses. He has had extensive experience in wage incentive payment systems. He is a nationally recognized authority on wage and salary administration policies and programs. He has served on many arbitration boards and for the past 14 years has been permanent arbiter for one of the large locomotive companies.

The meeting will be the first technical session of the fiscal year. L. Hamilton Krissler, president, will officiate. A highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the Tucker Trophy to the winner for the year just completed. The Tucker Trophy competition originated in December 1957 when Bernard C. Tucker, treasurer of Fargo Manufacturing Co., who was then vice president of the Mid-

Hudson Chapter presented a trophy to be awarded annually to the member who was most active and effective in all phases of chapter activities during the year.

A list of area members who plan to attend will be made available.

Preceding the meeting, the officers and directors will meet at 5 p. m.

Man, Accused Of TV Bribe, Shot by Police

NEW YORK (AP) — A Brooklyn man, wounded by a detective in a chase, is accused of offering a $3,000 bribe to two mail sorters in attempt to win a $30,000 house on an audience participation TV giveaway show.

Gerard Mignone, 38, shot in the cheek, was reported in fair condition today at Kings County Hospital.

Mignone was arrested late Monday on complaint of the producers of "The Price Is Right" show televised by NBC.

Boys Report Offer

Asst. Dist. Atty. Bernard Patten of Queens said Mignone offered the bribe to two 16-year-old boys employed by a Queens mail service. The firm handles mail for The Price Is Right, which offers prizes both to contestants in the studio and to the audience.

The boys reported the alleged bribe offer.

Two district attorney's detectives went to Brooklyn to arrest Mignone. They said Mignone ran into an alley, one of the detectives fired a warning shot, the bullet ricocheted and hit Mignone.

The Queens district attorney's office said Mignone tried to rig the giveaway this way:

Last month the show displayed a photograph of a home and invited viewers to send in postcards up to Aug. 29 estimating its value. The house was to be awarded to the person coming closest.

Mignone mailed a number of postcards to himself Aug. 24, to get postmarks on them.

Lists 'Guesses'

Early this month, the show announced the price for the home as $30,050.90. Mignone erased his own address on two cards, substituted that of the TV quiz program and listed his "guesses" as $30,250.90 and $32,050.80.

Mignone then approached Robert Griffin, who works for the Radioland firm, and asked him to slip the phonetic cards in with the legitimate mail. Griffin and his fellow employee, Frank Killane, were to get $3,000 between them if Mignone won the house.

State Has Six New Polio Cases

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Six new cases of polio, five of them paralytic, were reported last week in the 57 counties outside New York City.

The State Health Department said Monday the total compared with eight cases in the previous week. Three of the eight were paralytic.

The new cases raised to 74 the number reported in the 57 counties since January 1. This included 39 paralytic.

Before the introduction of the Salk anti-polio vaccine, the average number of cases in the 1951-53 period was 822. Of that number 448 were paralytic.

Rebukes Playgirl

LONDON (AP) — Lady Norah Docker's husband announced today that Prince Rainier of Monaco has refused to let the blonde British playgirl back on the Riviera to see her son represent Britain in a water skiing championship.

Sir Bernard Docker, millionaire industrialist, said his wife had applied to Grace Kelly's husband for a four-day suspension of the ban Rainier imposed against her last April. She wanted to go see son Lance compete at Juan Les Pins, which is next door to Monaco.

The Rainier-Docker feud started when the royal Monacan household refused to include Lance on his parents' invitation to the baptismal festivities of Rainier's son, Prince Albert. Her ladyship was accused of angrily tearing up a paper Monacan flag.

Missile Under Guard

LONDON (AP) — The first American-made Thor missile to reach Britain is kept under strict security guard today on the U. S. air base at Lakenheath.

Within days it will be transferred to a Royal Air Force launching center, and for the first time Britain will have a ballistic missile capable of delivering an H-bomb 1,500 miles.

A Defense Ministry spokesman confirmed reports from the United States that the rocket was flown secretly from the U. S. some days ago. About 60 will arrive by the end of the year.

Dag Optimistic

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld held his final round of talks with King Hussein and Prime Minister Samir Rifai today. He was reported optimistic about the success of his peacemaking mission in the Middle East.

The U. N. General Assembly asked Hammarskjöld to visit the Middle East to make arrangements to facilitate the withdrawal of British and American troops from Jordan and Lebanon. He is to report the results of his trip to the Assembly by Sept. 30.

The United States imported 2,900 long tons of pig tin in January of 1958, 1,265 long tons being from Malaya.

Jersey Firms Given SPA Contract for Park

NEW YORK (AP) — Two Englewood, N. J., firms have received a $99,025 contract from the New York State Power Authority for a park and a marina on Lake St. Lawrence.

Meadowbrook Nurseries and Carman Green Site Corp. entered the successful joint bid, one of six bids submitted.

The 25-mile-long lake was created by the back-up waters of the St. Lawrence Seaway, impounded behind a power-generating dam. The park will be built at the village of Waddington, and the dock at Coles Creek, about five miles to the east.

The authority announced the award Monday.

Circuit Assembly Of Witnesses to Convene Oct. 3-5

Ernest F. Kidd Jr. presiding minister of Jehovah's Witnesses in Kingston announced to the congregation Sunday that a three-day circuit assembly of the witnesses will be held at Lake Placid, Oct. 3 to 5.

This will be a small version of the eight-day international convention of Jehovah's Witnesses held last month at Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds.

The assembly's theme at Lake Placid will be "Expanding Our Ministry."

"The three-day program will provide practical training in the art of teaching God's word to others in expanding our ministry," Kidd said.

"The assembly is not a revival, but is held primarily to advance Bible education," he explained. "The program will include a variety of talks on Bible subjects. Groups of ministers will discuss ministerial problems and demonstrations will teach how Bible studies should be properly conducted," he concluded.

The featured speaker appearing daily on the program will be Edward A. Dunlap, ordained minister from Jehovah's Witnesses' world headquarters, Brooklyn. He served on the headquarters staff for 15 years.

Dunlap will deliver the principal address of the assembly on Sunday, Oct. 5th at 3 p. m. on the subject "God's Kingdom Rules—Is the World's End Near?"

Lomontville

LOMONTVILLE — School opened Sept. 3 for over 50 children from Lomontville who will attend Marletown School and Kingston High School.

Virgil H. Crisman III of Ashokan Road has returned home from Kingston Hospital.

A special meeting of the voters of Lomontville Fire District will be held at the community hall Sept. 15 from 7 to 10 p. m. to authorize the purchase of a new heating plant for the firehouse and community hall.

'Coya Come Home'

Wife-Mate Test Before Voters in Midwest Primary

By ADOLPH JOHNSON
AP Political Writer

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Voter reaction to a "Coya Come Home" appeal by her husband is being tested in the Minnesota primary election today as Democratic Rep. Coya Knutson seeks renomination. Being nominated in the state-wide primary are candidates for the U.S. Senate, eight other seats in the House of Representatives, and a full slate of state offices.

Mrs. Knutson, 45, last spring disregarded the written request of her husband Andy, 50, that she give up politics to restore their home life. Knutson operates a small cafe-hotel in Oklee, Minn., a village of 500.

Sunday, when she spoke to an audience of 1,200 in Oklee, her husband stayed in the hotel, waiting for her to come and see him. She didn't.

"I'm too busy working to come back and fight a few personal battles," she said.

Knutson is supporting Marvin Evenson, Moorhead businessman who is Mrs. Knutson's opponent in the 9th Dist. Evenson told voters Mrs. Knutson isn't doing her job, that she misses too many roll calls. Mrs. Knutson retorted that her attendance record is better than most and that she has a heavy committee load.

GOP Just Beaten, Ike on Maine

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—President Eisenhower today sized up the Democratic sweep in the Maine elections as a Republican party beating there is no use trying to disguise.

Eisenhower's reaction of disappointment was reported to newsmen at the summer White House by press secretary James C. Hagerty.

Hagerty spoke shortly after the Republican National Committee in Washington had supplied Eisenhower, at his request, with final returns on the Maine contests. Democrats in the state won a U.S. Senate seat for the first time in 47 years. They also retained the governorship and scored other major triumphs.

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats smashed across a staggering blow at Republican hopes of regaining control of Congress with a stunning sweep in Maine's election Monday.

In their final salute to the tradition of September balloting that ends this year, Maine voters told the nation there is deep trouble ahead for Republican candidates for state and national offices.

Surprise Results
A whirlwind of votes carried Democratic Gov. Edmund S. Muskie to victory over GOP Sen. Frederick G. Payne for a Senate seat the embattled Republicans could ill afford to lose.

The surprising results, after a relatively unexciting campaign, indicated to some political strategists an underlying dissatisfaction with the Republicans going beyond the usual reaction against the administration in power in off-year elections.

Although the potency of Muskie's personal popularity was generally accepted, these strategists were inclined to credit the results of the Senate race to sleeper issues, such as Payne's close association with Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine.

Linked to Goldfine
Like presidential assistant Sherman Adams, Payne accepted expensive favors from Goldfine, who made friends with the influential but said he received no favors from them.

Payne's defeat solidified the belief of Democratic lieutenants that the issue of the Eisenhower administration's ethics is one that is likely to speak for itself in other states—as they think it did in Maine—without too much noisy drum beating from them.

Muskie did not mention the matter, but Payne defended his association with Goldfine when asked about it at campaign rallies.

The Democrats have armed their candidates with documented records not only of the Adams-Goldfine case but of other instances where they contend Eisenhower administration officials violated the moral code.

But their advice to these candidates is to hold this ammunition in reserve unless their opponents start "running against Truman" by talking about prior Democratic monkeyshines in Washington.

Muskie Has Appeal

Muskie's personal popularity and his demonstrated appeal to Republican voters in two successful gubernatorial races were credited with playing a part in the results. So were his criticisms of the Eisenhower administration's foreign and defense policies.

Democrats thought they saw also in Payne's defeat the impact of unemployment, loss of industries and the general economic recession.

Payne had hoped that the depressed areas bill, which he had helped write, would demonstrate his activity in this field. But Eisenhower shot that issue out from under him with a pocket veto of the measure. Instead, Payne got a presidential telegram saying the senator was needed in Washington to support the administration.

Investor Forum

Harry C. France

MONEY'S QUALITY

Every man, woman and child in America is vitally concerned with the quality of the American dollar. When it loses some of its integrity, prices, costs and wages are sure to rise. And that is what has been happening for two decades.

The economic road of inflation is long and winding. Everybody has been traveling it—some very disastrously.

For example, in 1934, two sisters each inherited $20,000 from their father. One kept all her money in high grade bonds and in banks, and one bought prime common stocks. Ten years ago, the sister with bonds and deposits spent her last $1,000 and went to live with her sister.

Today, the common stockholder has an estate that inventories $160,000 and the annual income is around $10,000—a 50 per cent return on the capital originally invested. Capital appreciation in 24 years has been 800 per cent—a yearly average of about 33 per cent.

An important question to ask in 1958 is: "Will the dollar deteriorate as much in the 24 years ahead as it has in the past 24?" The answer is 'no' unless the world is thrown into another war. But the deterioration will continue and all investors should recognize this fact.

The dollar's decline traces back more than two decades. It centers in the United States Government's fiscal policy. Twenty years ago, in 1938, the Federal debt was $37,000,000,000. Most financial experts thought it was dangerously high then.

With a severe depression on, deficit spending continued. And then came the very expensive world war that cost Uncle Sam $250,000,000 a day—60 per cent of which he borrowed. That built up a big debt.

Today's debt dwarfs the 1938 one. The Administration in Washington proposes to lift the debt ceiling to 283 billions of dollars and 3 billions more on a temporary basis.

Thus, in 24 years, the debt that 173,000,000 people in America are responsible for has grown from 37 billions to 283 billions. Twenty-four years are 8,760 days which means that Uncle Sam's debt has increased, on the average, $28,000,000 daily since 1938—one million an hour, night and day, Sundays and holidays.

He is the only individual in the world able to borrow such colossal sums and still remain solvent. But even with all his power, he cannot prevent the gigantic tides of inflation from inundating millions and millions of people.

This daily borrowing of $28,000,000 is the primary cause of rising prices, cost, wages and taxes.

And as more people in America understand the insidious character of inflation, they will want to buy and hold values carrying inflation-protection power.

That is why, with unbalanced budgets in Washington, I can't believe there will be a big sell-off in the stock market. In fact, I think that any investor who unnecessarily sells sound common stocks for deteriorating dollars ought to see a psychiatrist.

Capital gains taxes further complicate the situation. Suppose an investor takes either short or long term profits in his stocks. He must pay either 25 per cent or 50 per cent of them to Uncle Sam, and after this has been done, he finds himself confronted with weak dollars and high stock prices.

Sound stocks bought in 1958 should be held for income and growth. The policy of taking profits, paying big capital gains taxes, and then re-investing what is left is unwise.

Butler Labels Maine Result Trend for Dems

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler interpreted the Maine election results today as a sign of a strong Democratic trend in the nation.

"The people are sick of drift and indecision and are eager for firm leadership," Butler said.

His statement added that the Democratic victory in the one-time Republican stronghold "demonstrates that there is a strong national trend favoring the Democratic party."

"The people," he said, "are ready to repudiate a Republican party which boasts of prosperity with five million people out of work and whose titular head votes Democratic measures to provide jobs for the idle. The voters are also ready to repudiate the favoritism and gift-taking by the man who runs the executive branch when the President is not at his desk."

"The Republican effort to say that unemployment is prosperity, that corruption is honesty, that drift is leadership, that the mess in the Middle East and the Straits of Formosa is peace, has failed."

"If the Democrats in other states will campaign as vigorously as did the Maine Democrats we will elect strong effective majorities to both houses of Congress this November. Our only peril is complacency and overconfidence."

Training Officers Needed by Navy At Device Center

Training officers in the military sciences are needed at the U. S. Naval Training Device Center, Port Washington, New York, the U. S. Civil Service Commission announces. The entrance salaries are $7,030 and $8,330 a year.

The duties of these positions involve the participation in programs for the development, production and utilization of military training devices and in the training of technical personnel to maintain and operate these devices.

Applicants must have completed college study in both technical and educational fields, have had appropriate military or civilian training experience, or have had any time-equivalent combination of education and experience. In addition, they must have had appropriate specialized experience in training programs concerned with technical equipment.

Full information regarding the requirements and how to apply may be obtained from Leo W. Darwak, examiner-in-charge located at Central Post Office, Kingston, N. Y. or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

Between 1840 and 1850 more than 200,000 immigrants yearly entered New York harbor.

'Pneumatic' Farm of the Future

An air-supported plastic structure like this could cover large sections of farm, providing shelter for buildings or animals.

Strange new shapes may dot the nation's farms in not too many years. Air-supported structures, such as those above, may make every farm a greenhouse, with temperature and climatic conditions controlled in plastic "bubbles." Although the idea of air structures was suggested in England shortly after World War I, it found its first practical application in radomes—spheres of coated fabric which protect radar antennae at U. S. bases in harsh areas such as the far north. E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co. engineers predict that advances in design and improvement in materials will provide an almost unlimited field of application. Experiments suggest that tough, lightweight "Mylar" polyester film, supported by low-pressure air blowers, could be used for structures 200 feet or more in diameter, sufficient to cover the entire farm buildings or crop and animal areas. Other uses could be served with sausagelike structures, used together or singly.

10 States Hold Primaries Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two former Democratic senators pushed comeback attempts today as voters in 10 states chose nominees in party primaries.

Claude Pepper, who held a Senate seat for 14 years until his defeat in 1950, is bidding for a return against Sen. Spessard Holland in Florida's Democratic primary, equivalent to election.

Gov. Ernest McFarland of Arizona, who served two terms in the Senate until he was sidelined in 1952, is making a new try to return to Washington in a race with Stephen W. Langmade, Democratic national committeeman for Arizona.

Today's primary contests involve 8 Senate seats, 59 House seats and 7 governorships.

The Democrats achieved a major sendoff victory in this year's general elections when they shattered Maine's Republican tradition Monday and captured four of five major races.

Many candidates in today's primaries will be nominated automatically because they have no opposition. They include Senators John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.).

Goldwater will face the winner of the McFarland-Langmade race. It was Goldwater who defeated McFarland in 1952.

The Florida fight provides voters with a clear-cut choice in political philosophies. Pepper, a liberal, supported President Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal policies during his years in the Senate. Holland is an avowed conservative. Most predictions gave Holland the victory.

the conduct of temporary classes pending a decision by State Commissioner of Education James E. Allen Jr. A group of parents submitted the request.

Refused Fourth Day

Eighteen of the children were taken by their parents to Ontario Central School Monday morning and were refused admission for the fourth day.

About eight of the 31 children involved have been attending the Pine Hill School since the fall session opened.

It is reported that a number of the children will report to the fire station for informal classes handled by the parents themselves.

Board Defers Date For Police Chief Examination Here

Airing of reported "possible charges" against an unidentified member of the police department resulted in a decision by the police board last night that there were "no grounds" for action.

The board decided to request the Civil Service Commission to defer the promotional examination for police chief. It is slated for Oct. 18. No reason for requested deferment was given.

Nothing was said as to an expected reply to reported charges against Robert F. Murphy, who had been acting chief until imposition of a 30-day suspension, which was a mandatory provision pertinent to announcement of charges.

Six Are Interviewed

The board, in a five-hour session, interviewed six candidates for appointment as patrolmen, but announced no appointments. Another special meeting is tentatively slated for Wednesday night when more interviews are expected to be held, and when a report on department "rules and regulations" are due to be made by Lt. Kenneth E. Weidenborner, who is the state police who is in charge of reorganization.

Mayor Edwin F. Radel said today that "considerable time was spent interviewing a member of the police department against whom charges might possibly have been placed, based upon information from the Reuter report and the grand jury minutes."

No Grounds, Board Decides

"After much consideration and discussion," he said "the board voted, unanimously that there was no grounds for such charges."

Most of the session, was devoted to interviewing prospective patrolmen, and a scheduled discussion with Lt. Weidenborner was put over until the next meeting.

Two of the six candidates interviewed last night are now serving as special patrolmen. Nine patrolmen are to be appointed to bring the force to 60 men. Eleven have been named from an eligibility list of 26.

All board members, including Mayor Radel, attended. Corporation Counsel William A. Kelly, and Common Council President Harold L. Kaye also attended.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market renewed attack on its all-time bull market highs in heavy trading early this afternoon.

Steels and motors paced the advance of industrial issues. Rails, which have lagged behind the rest of the market, joined the rise.

Leading issues gained from fractions to well over a point. Chemicals, oils, electronics and selected issues did well.

High hopes that an auto strike would be averted, the rise of steel production toward a new peak for 1958 and the simmering-down of the Formosa Strait crisis bolstered confidence.

Many blue chip stocks hit new highs for the year as the average once again moved to a top level for 1958.

American Telephone, Eastman Kodak and International Business Machines were among the blue chips that made new highs for the year.

Chrysler added about two points while Ford and General Motors added about a point each.

U.S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Republic Steel and Lukens were all up a point or better.

American Telephone and Eastman Kodak resumed their gains, adding a point or more.

The Associated Press 60-stock average at noon was up $1.00 to $188.70 with the industrials up $1.90, the rails up $1.00 and the utilities up 10 cents.

U.S. government bonds drifted lower.

Doesn't Add Up

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — This was a robbery attempt that just didn't add up.

As police chased a thief who broke into a downtown store early this morning, he dropped his entire loot—two adding machines.

Exclusive of Long Island, New York State is roughly triangular in shape.

209 Group Going To Albany About Kingston-PJ Road

The legislative committee of the Route 209 Improvement Association will go to Albany Thursday to confer with officials of the New York State Department of Public Works, it was reported today.

The group will meet with Bert Hughes, first assistant to the superintendent, and with James Truex, public relations director.

They will discuss an improvement program for the highway between Kingston and Port Jervis.

The committee of six will be headed by Mayor Eugene Glusker of Ellenville, chairman. Among those on the committee is Albert C. Kurdt, manager of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce.

The group will report on the conference at a meeting of the 209 Association at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 18, at the Park Lane, Huguenot.

Saugerties Man In Monday Mishap Held on Charges

A Saugerties man injured in an automobile accident, which according to Highland state police demolished his friend's car early Monday morning near Highland, was arrested on two charges and must appear in Town of Lloyd court Saturday morning.

Reported in an "improved condition" in Vassar Brothers Hospital, Poughkeepsie, this morning are:

John J. Erec, 26, of Livingston Street, Saugerties, suffering abrasions of the right side of the head and concussion.

Robert White, 23, of Cementon, owner of the 1957 sedan involved in the accident, lacerations of the right ear.

Erec, charged with being an unlicensed operator and driving while intoxicated must appear Saturday before Town of Lloyd Justice of the Peace P. J. Conforti at Highland.

Troopers Harold Foster and Roger Gardner reported that the 1957 sedan operated by Erec at about 2:45 a. m. Monday was traveling south on Route 9V about 1½ miles south of Highland and Traffic Circle. The vehicle failed to negotiate a turn, went off the right side of the road, swerved back across the free lane, went off the left shoulder up an embankment, down again and skidded sideways into a utility pole.

Highland troopers listed the car as a total loss.

Miss America, Brunette Beauty, Sings In Choir

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—A winsome brunette who sings in a church choir and used to be "the biggest tomboy you've ever seen" today wears the crown of Miss America 1959.

Mary Ann Mobley of Brandon, Miss., was resting up in a New York City hotel after a hectic week of competition in the oldest national beauty pageant in America.

The week ended in triumph for the 21-year-old college senior Saturday night when she was named the new Miss America before a capacity Convention Hall crowd of 17,000 and a nationwide television audience.

The 5-foot-5 Southern belle, who has brown eyes and an olive complexion, burst into tears after she was crowned by the outgoing queen, Marilyn Van Derbur of Denver, Colo.

"It might sound trite, but I had no idea of winning—no idea at all," she later told newsmen. "I feel very inadequate. It's something I can't even comprehend."

Special Significance

Winning the title had a special significance for Mary Ann. She lost out last year as Mississippi's entrant in the pageant.

The new Miss America, who weighs 114 pounds and measures 34½-22-35, began her reign by attending the coronation ball early Sunday morning. Her escorts were West Point cadets Victor Letnoff and Charles P. Ostott.

Two rather interested people never got to the ball. Mary Ann's mother and her attorney-stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. David Williams, were tied up answering long-distance telephone calls from well-wishers.

Hopes to Be Actress

Mary Ann is studying speech and English at the University of Mississippi and hopes to become an actress. She plans to use the $10,000 she received as winner of the pageant toward that end.

In addition, the new Miss America receives about $140,000 in personal appearance fees and other prizes.

Mary Ann, who sings in the choir at Brandon Methodist Church, readily admits that she wasn't always a beauty.

"I had pigtails until I was 8, and then I had scarlet fever and my hair fell out. I wore braces on my teeth for four years."

As for romance, she said: "I've been lucky enough to date several nice young men, but I've never trapped any. I'm working on one though."

Second Place Winner

She declined to give his name. The girl who won second place in the pageant, Miss Iowa, Joanne Lucille MacDonald, 20, of Ames, belongs to Chi Omega, the same sorority as Mary Ann. Joanne received a $3,000 scholarship.

Third place went to Miss Oklahoma, Anita Bryant, 18, Tulsa, who received a $2,500 scholarship.

Miss California, Sandra Lee Jennings, 18, Riverside, got a $2,000 scholarship for placing fourth, and Miss North Carolina, Betty Lane Evans, 18, Greenville, was fifth, receiving a $1,500 scholarship.

State GI Faces Murder Charge in Slaying of Woman

BAY MINETTE, Ala. (AP)—Baldwin County grand jury is considering a murder charge against Pvt. Henry Queor Jr., of Winthrop, N. Y., in the slaying of a Norfolk, Va., woman.

The jury convened Monday for the fall term. It is expected to report late this week.

Queor is being held without bond in the slaying of Mrs. Pauline Penny, a 40-year-old practical nurse. Her battered body was found March 8 in a roadside park at Seminola, Ala., near the Florida line.

Queor was picked up by FBI agents March 19 at the Aberdeen, Md., Proving Ground, where he was stationed. An FBI spokesman said he was traced through Mrs. Penny's car.

Sheriff Taylor Wilkins said Queor signed a statement admitting he killed Mrs. Penny after she hit him with a whisky bottle during an argument. The officer quoted the soldier as saying the woman picked him up while he was hitchhiking.

Police Still Seek 'Concrete Lead' in Robilotto Death

NEW YORK (AP) — Brooklyn police said today they still are looking for a "concrete lead" in the slaying of John (The Mortician) Robilotto.

Once the prime suspect in the slaying of gambler Willie Moretti, the 54-year-old Robilotto reportedly attended the Apalachin gangland meeting last November, but slipped through a state police cordon that netted many of the delegates.

A Brooklyn gambler and bookmaker, Ralph Ruffalo, 54, Monday night became the seventh person arrested on a vagrancy charge in the Robilotto case. Police emphasized that Ruffalo was not believed to have had a direct connection with Robilotto's death.

Police said Ruffalo, known as "The Rock," often used Robilotto's automobile.

Robilotto, a funeral director who had a hand in the rackets, was found dead early Sunday on a street in the East Flatbush section of Brooklyn. Four bullets were in his body.

Robilotto was slain, police said, shortly after leaving a restaurant with three men. He had received a telephone call at the restaurant.

Robilotto was indicted in New Jersey in 1952 in Moretti's slaying. Robilotto's murder indictment was dismissed after three years for lack of evidence.

Matter of FACT

The first of the inventions which revolutionized shoe manufacturing came in 1845, almost the first improvement in the process used from the time of ancient Egyptian shoemakers. The rolling machine took the place of the lapstone and hammer with which the shoemakers had pounded and toughened leather.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News, Analyst ... NEW YORK (AP) — Perhaps all of you know of at least one man who has come up against a mandatory retirement rule in his company and had to step out much against his will.

His plight arouses pity. But the rule is spreading in industry.

And more companies seem to find it best for everyone, although in some board rooms there is discussion of advancing the retirement age — 65 seems to be the norm — in view of the increasing life expectancy that insurance company statistics reveal.

Most executives, although facing the situation themselves, seem to approve of it. But more men begin preparing for the day well in advance and have their plans well blocked out.

More companies are starting up advisory programs to train employees to meet the situation when it arrives.

To see how company presidents themselves feel about executive age and retirement problems, Dun & Bradstreet has queried heads of 162 companies, representing 25 billion dollars in total assets and 30 billion dollars in annual net sales.

It reports today in its publication, Dun's Review and Modern Industry, that three out of four of the manufacturing concerns now have mandatory retirement rules.

Four out of five of the presidents favor the idea in principle. And four out of five already have a successor in mind for their own job.

The average age of the 162 presidents is 55. The average president has had the top job for seven years. On average he has a nine-man team of immediate subordinates, their age averaging 52.

Most of the presidents think executives are most productive in the years between 40 and 60. Understandably, presidents who are younger than the average cite their youth as making it easier to conceive and carry out long-range planning. Those older than the average cite their experience as a prime asset.

Many of the corporate presidents cite as one of their chief problems what to do about aging employees, with long executive service records who are beginning to slip. Some ease up on the older man's duties. Some favor company programs to help executives prepare to retire—and, if it seems best, to help him retire before reaching the mandatory age.

Family Jolt

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (AP) —Grandfather and grandson met recently in a jolting way.

Andrew Wysocki was about to make a right turn in his automobile when his car was struck by another. Inside this one was his 9-year-old grandson, Michael Wysocki. Mike's father said the boy probably had accidentally released the brakes on the parked car.

St. Mary's Church Is Scene of Wedding For Mary Perry and Carmelo Spano

Miss Mary Perry, daughter of Mrs. August Perry of 170 Delaware Avenue, was united in marriage with Carmelo Spano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Spano of 160 Palmer Street, Watertown, on Sunday, Aug. 31 at St. Mary's Church.

The Rev. Francis X. Toner officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Theodore Riccobono was at the organ and Martin Kelly sang "Ave Maria."

The church was decorated with white gladioli and palms.

Given in marriage by her brother, Charles Perry, the bride wore a bridal gown of candlelight white satin with box pleated and panier draped chapel length train and long torso. The bodice was of imported hand clipped Alencon lace and the Sabrina neckline was outlined with iridescent sequins. A bridal headpiece of Alencon lace held the silk illusion veil. The bride carried a prayer book with a white orchid and showers of stephanotis.

Mrs. John Rinaldi of 75 Harding Avenue served the bride as matron of honor. She was attired in a gown of peau de soie sunset rose fashioned on empire lines with a trapeze back. Her headpiece was of matching nylon maline with bow of peau de soie. She carried a cascade of light pink glamelias.

Wearing gowns of deep turquoise blue with matching headpieces styled the same as that worn by the honor attendant, were the bridesmaids, Susan Perry, cousin of the bride, Louise Corrado of Glasco and Marie Pugliese of East Kingston. They carried cascades of dark red glamelias.

Mother of the bride wore a Dior blue lace with Dior blue velvet hat and accessories. She also wore a corsage of purple orchids.

Mother of the bridegroom was attired in a slate blue lace with navy blue hat and accessories and a corsage of purple orchids.

Paul E. Spano was best man for his brother, Domenic Spano, brother of the bridegroom, Thomas Mayone of Barclay Heights and John Porto of Glasco, were the ushers.

A reception was held at the Tropical Inn for 310 guests.

Both the bride and bridegroom are employed by IBM in Kingston. The bridegroom, who is an alumnus of Watertown High School, Watertown, served four years with the U. S. Air Force.

For her wedding trip to Canada, the bride's traveling ensemble consisted of a beige suit with beige velvet hat, brown accessories and an orchid.

The couple will make their home at 170 Delaware Avenue.

FIANCE WOULD BE BANKER

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like very much to have my friend and her husband and my fiancé as my guests at dinner and the theater. The theater tickets will be bought in advance, but I do not know how to go about arranging to pay for the dinner without causing embarrassment to either of the men. My name is not known in the hotel where we will be eating. Is there any way I can prevent having the bill rendered when the others are present?

Answer: Give the money to your fiancé beforehand and ask him to be banker for you. There is nothing either unusual or improper in this.

Thanks for Funeral Flowers
Dear Mrs. Post: Recently the father of a club friend passed away and although we have a rule that flowers are sent to a family in that instance, several of the girls in addition sent flowers individually for the reason that the girl's house had been open for so many of our club parties and all of us knew her father personally. At a meeting this bereaved friend thanked everyone collectively for all they had done. Those who sent flowers individually did not receive a thank-you note. Shouldn't she have written to these members personally?

Answer: A few words of thanks across her visiting card should certainly have been sent to each of these individual givers.

The Toast to the Honored Couple
Dear Mrs. Post: At a dinner in honor of a golden wedding anniversary couple, should the clergyman be asked to say grace before the toast is drunk to the "jubilarians" or immediately after; in other words, is the wine for the toast considered part of the meal?

Answer: Grace is often said before the "jubilarians" sit down at the table, or just after they are seated, before any food or drink is touched. Afterward all except the honored couple rise for the formal toast to them.

When should a gentleman offer his arm to the lady with him? This and many other questions about manners in public are included in Mrs. Post's leaflet E-15, "Manners in Public." Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, in care of The Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Hudson Valley International Youth Meeting Is Held at Paltz College for Three Days

High School students from twelve foreign countries met at State University Teachers College, New Paltz, Wednesday, Aug. 27, for a Hudson Valley International Summer Youth Conference.

The college sponsored the conference in cooperation with the Louis August Jonas Foundation, Inc., which has operated Camp Rising Sun, Rhinebeck, since 1929. Twelve American high school students from this area were invited to the campus to meet the foreign students and to participate in a three-day conference.

According to John G. Vett, college coordinator of Field Relations, the purpose of the conference was to help 12 American boys and girls and 12 boys from countries abroad to understand each other a little better through an exchange of ideas in an informal series of activities. A feature of the program was the overnight stay by each boy from abroad in the home of an American boy or girl Friday, Aug. 29. The 12 boys, each from a different country, spent the summer at Camp Rising Sun, and have since returned to their own countries soon after the conference. The countries represented this year were Brazil, Denmark, Finland, Greece, Holland, Iraq, Japan, Mexico, Poland, Sweden, France and Turkey.

Among the activities planned for the group were field trips to Walkkill Prison, an area newspaper and IBM in Poughkeepsie. A public meeting was held Thursday evening and each boy presented a short talk and sang some of his native songs.

American high school students from this area who attended the conference were: Stephen Endsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Endsley, 12 Sheldon Road, Poughkeepsie; James Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hawkins, North Road, Poughkeepsie; Thomas Landau, son of Dr. and Mrs. Victor Landau, 5 Lincoln Place, New Paltz; Joyce Lynn Proctor, daughter of Mrs. Miriam Proctor, 82 Pine Grove Avenue, Kingston; Linda Lehv, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lehv, 40 South Clinton Street, Poughkeepsie; Lorraine LeCrann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan LeCrann, 99 Dubois Street, Newburgh; Susanne Meeker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Meeker, RFD 1, Wallkill; William Wilken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wilken, 23 Linden Avenue, Red Hook; Wayne Nicklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nicklin, RFD Marlboro; Jean Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester H. Warren, Wurtsburg Road, Rhinebeck; Paul Wengert Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wengert, Malden-on-Hudson, Malden; Ada E. Smart, daughter of Mrs. Ada P. Smart, South Road, Poughkeepsie.

The idea of the Suez Canal was first thought of by the ancient Egyptians. Parts of it were dug a thousand years before the birth of Christ. Finally, in 1858, a company was organized to build the canal. Work began in 1859 and the 87.5-mile canal opened 10 years later at a cost of about $136,000,000.

"I landed my boat on an island. I went ashore and when I got up to the middle of the island I met the biggest bear I ever see in my life. There was one tree on the island and I made for that tree. The nearest limb was a big one, about twenty feet from the ground, and I jumped for it.

Friend (listening to the story)—Did you manage it?

Zit—I'm dead (screaming hysterically and keeled over in a dead faint).

Zat looked at his stricken companion, picked him up and carried him all the way to the morgue. The doctor looked at the bleeding man, examined him, then turned to Zat.

Doctor—Why have you brought this man here? He isn't dead.

Rockefeller Would Link State, Local Activities

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Republican Nelson A. Rockefeller says he will set up a special bureau to coordinate activities between the state and local communities if elected governor.

Rockefeller outlined the plan briefly before a cheering crowd of 4,500 partisans attending a GOP rally in the War Memorial Auditorium Monday night. Rockefeller rapped the four-year administration of Democratic Gov. Harriman as one marked by "vacillation, veto and alibis."

Earlier, the State CIO Council voted to support Harriman and the entire Democratic state ticket. But it criticized efforts of New York City Democratic leaders to dictate the selection of candidates.

A three-way race for attorney general developed when the Liberal Party again ignored Democratic Peter J. Crotty of Buffalo and instead nominated Edward Godell, 56, a New York City lawyer.

Liberals Reject Crotty
The Liberals endorsed Harriman and other Democratic candidates but rejected Crotty as too conservative. Godell replaced Richard L. Lipsitz, a Buffalo lawyer, who declined the nomination last week.

Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz is the Republican candidate. Rockefeller said his office of local government would be established as part of the executive department. He said it would coordinate state activities that affect local governments and give leadership and help to communities in solving their problems.

Rockefeller accused the Harriman administration of boosting taxes, increasing the state debt and depleting the capital construction reserve. He said the administration could not point to a single major accomplishment although, he added, "an awful lot of Democrat (sic) ribbons are being cut on Republican projects."

Rep. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester, the GOP candidate for U. S. Senator, also appeared at the rally.

CIO for Democrats
The CIO council endorsed the Democratic slate after its 12-member policy committee met with Harriman at his town house in New York City.

Louis Hollander, state CIO president, said the council supported Harriman's past actions "in vetoing a number of anti-labor bills."

Hollander said Buffalo steelworkers had urged support of Crotty, the Erie County Democratic leader who has represented the United Steelworkers union. The party's five New York City leaders, headed by Manhattan's Carmine G. DeSapio, maneuvered the nominations of Crotty and of Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan for the U. S. Senate. Harriman and the Liberals opposed both men.

The Liberals have been critical of the choice of Hogan. They nominated Thomas K. Finletter, former Air Force secretary and Harriman's choice for the Senate. Finletter subsequently turned down the Liberal nomination and the Liberals, at Harriman's urging, endorsed Hogan.

Reds Sentence Traitors
MOSCOW (AP)—Five Russians described as traitors who collaborated with the Nazis during World War II have been sentenced to death by a military tribunal in southern Russia. The Soviet army newspaper Red Star said they had been found after hiding out for 15 years.

Rockefeller Thinks Tiger Swallowed Ave

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Did the Tammany Tiger swallow Democratic Gov. Harriman? His Republican opponent, Nelson A. Rockefeller, sort of thinks so.

Speaking at a Republican rally Monday night, Rockefeller remarked that Harriman rode to office on the tiger four years ago. Suggesting that the tables had turned, Rockefeller came up with this famed old limerick:

"There was a young lady from Niger
Who smiled as she rode on a tiger,
They came back from the ride,
With the lady inside
And the smile on the face of the Tiger."

Tammany Hall is the Manhattan Democratic organization. Its leader is Carmine G. DeSapio, who is credited with gaining the party's U. S. Senate nomination for Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan, over Harriman's strong objections.

Outlook Better For Accord in UAW, Car Talks

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers and car industry management squared off today in their contract negotiations battle amid new hopes of settlement without a strike.

On the surface, at least, conditions appeared more favorable than 24 hours earlier in the stalemate talks.

With UAW President Walter Reuther on the scene as a negotiator, Chrysler, Ford and General Motors all went into separate negotiations with the UAW.

Overnight the UAW called off its public meetings scheduled for today at which it had intended to report on negotiations to invited community leaders of auto industry cities.

Also, Reuther and Vice President Louis G. Seaton of General Motors reported a better understanding. Reuther also indicated something of the same had been accomplished at a negotiations meeting he attended at Ford.

The negotiations, tied up tight since previous contracts expired last Memorial Day weekend, are reputedly now in a hard and fast stage as the time draws near for the car manufacturers' big 1959 new model car production race.

Fall Meeting Announced
The Ulster-Albany Avenue Businessmen's Association will hold its first meeting after the summer recess at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the Cyprus Inn. President Ted Musialkiewicz urged all members to attend. He said there will be a review of the events of the summer among other items on the agenda. The Association meets on the second Wednesday in each month.

New Girard Case

Says Japan Will Insist Right to Try U.S. Airman

TOKYO (AP) — Justice Minister Kiichi Aichi said today the Japanese government will insist on jurisdiction over a young American airman whose shot from a U.S. air base gate killed a young Japanese music student on a passing train.

Tokyo newspapers indicated that if the United States doesn't turn A.C. Peter E. Longpre of Lakewood, Calif., over to the Japanese, the Americans will have another Girard case on their hands.

Was on Guard Duty
Aichi told a Cabinet meeting he didn't think the shooting occurred during "performance of official duty" although Longpre was on guard duty at the entrance of Johnson Air Force Base when his carbine went off Sunday.

The 19-year-old airman said the gun fired accidentally and he did not know it was loaded. The bullet passed through a window of a passing train and hit Sachiyo Miyamura, who was on his way to play a musical engagement at the base 20 miles northwest of Tokyo.

The Air Force is still investigating the shooting and is holding Longpre.

Under a U.S.-Japanese agreement, offenses committed by American military personnel in performance of duty come under U.S. military jurisdiction, while off-duty offenses are handled by Japanese courts.

Controversial Case
In the controversial case of Specialist S.C. William Girard in 1957, Japan maintained similarly that although on guard duty on an Army firing range, Girard was not performing his assigned duty when he shot a Japanese woman scrap collector in the back and killed her. Dispute in which congressmen and newspapers in both countries heatedly joined in. The U. S. Supreme Court finally upheld the Japanese jurisdiction. Girard got off with a suspended sentence.

Ready New Space Clues

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Special photographic plates bearing what scientists hope are further clues to the secrets of outer space were being readied here today for a trip to Massachusetts Institute of Technology for analysis.

The data was obtained by a specially built lead-shielded gamma ray telescope camera towed to an altitude of more than 19 miles by a huge 303-foot long plastic balloon.

The balloon, launched by General Mills, Inc., of Minneapolis Sunday night, soared to 104,600 feet, where it remained for some 16 hours.

A triggering device cut the 900-pound telescope and its 500-pound lead shield free. It descended by parachute and was recovered on a southeastern Minnesota farm.

The telescope was devised by MIT scientists in an attempt to provide additional information about the source and direction of cosmic rays, considered a potential hazard to space flight.

IUE to Take Strike Vote At GE Soon

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP) — Members of the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE) will take a secret strike vote Sept. 17-18 at the main plant of the General Electric Co.

Other locals are taking similar votes at GE plants across the country.

National IUE leaders have said that the union will strike GE Oct. 2—if locals approve—unless a new contract agreement is reached by Oct. 1.

Arrangements for the Schenectady balloting was announced on Monday night by John Shambo, acting business agent of Local 301.

GE offered Monday to install voting machines at the plant, and to pay workers for time spent balloting.

Local 301 is the largest union local in the GE system.

Reports Red China Will Attack Islands

HONG KONG (AP) — Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's Prime Minister, said today that Red China's top leaders told him in Peiping they are going to take the Nationalist offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu now and Formosa later.

He recently returned from a three-week visit to Red China after establishing diplomatic relations between his Indochinese kingdom and Peiping.

Bomb Hoax Delays Bus

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — A bomb hoax delayed 13 passengers on a Greyhound bus about 90 minutes Monday.

Police stopped the bus just outside the city and searched it, but no explosives were found. The passengers boarded another bus, which continued the run to Washington, D. C.

The switchboard operator at the terminal said the unidentified caller sounded like a "deep-voiced child or a disguised voice."

What the Future Holds, as Predicted by Our Spending

BY FAYE HENLE

Recently I advised "Keep Your Credit Bright and Shining." Two things prompted this.

First, as I explained, the talk going around to the effect that going into debt is the best way to beat inflation. This is sheer nonsense.

Second, the threat being sounded that "if we don't want credit controls, we'd better watch out." This is more nonsense.

The people who make such statements simply do not know the facts. They have done no figuring.

The National Consumer Finance Association has just prepared a balance sheet of the American consumer based on statistics gathered by such government institutions as the Federal Reserve Board and the Securities & Exchange Commission. It shows that:

We, the American consumer,

LEGAL NOTICES

STATE OF NEW YORK SUPREME COURT: COUNTY OF ALBANY

SHERIFF'S SALE
EDWARD W. BOUTELLE and LINDA M. BOUTELLE, joint business under the firm name of Edward W. Boutelle and Son, Plaintiffs, against WASHINGTON BROTHERS COMPANY, Defendants.

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Supreme Court, County of Ulster, against the property, real and personal, of said Washington Brothers Company, the undersigned will sell at public auction, pursuant to law, at Court House, Kingston, on the 9th day of September 1958, at 11:00 o'clock of forenoon of that day, all the right, title and interest which said Washington Brothers Company had therein on the 23rd day of May 1958, or any time subsequent thereto, in and to the premises and premises described as follows:

All that tract or parcel of land situate in the Village of Glasco, County of Ulster, and State of New York, bounded by the road known as the Glasco Turnpike Road on the North and on the South by lands formerly owned by said Henry Coose, now owned by the party of the second part, last course being substantially a straight line from said road to the corner with lands now of party of the second part with lands now or late of land of Andrew Low and from thence running northerly along the lands of said Low on a line three feet West side of the carpenter shop of said Low to said Glasco Turnpike road commonly called Delaware Street.

Upstate Accord

Truckers Approve 3-Year Contract

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Upstate truck drivers belonging to the Teamsters Union have approved a new three-year contract by a heavy margin, a union official says.

The contract, covering 12,000 drivers, would be retroactive to Aug. 1. It calls for a $10.80 weekly pay increase to be reached in annual steps over the three-year period.

12 of 13 Approve

Twelve of the 13 Upstate trucker locals voted to accept the contract, Nicholas Robilotto, secretary-treasurer of the Teamsters' Upstate freight division, said yesterday.

The Syracuse local rejected the agreement. A rebel group in the local charged that James R. Hoffa, Teamsters president, had money invested in the trucking industry and was more in sympathy with the employers than the drivers.

Hoffa participated briefly in the lengthy contract talks between Teamster officials and the New York State Trucking Employers. Under the voting system used, votes of all drivers are pooled and the majority prevails. Thus the contract would be binding on the Syracuse local.

Vote Not Compiled

Robilotto said the total vote had not been compiled. He added, however, that it was obvious from returns in hand that the contract had been approved.

The contract provides for improved pension, holiday and vacation plans, in addition to the wage boost, Robilotto said. The basic wage now is $92.50 a week.

Robilotto said two locals in Buffalo and others in Albany, Utica, Rochester, Jamestown, Auburn, Ithaca, Plattsburgh, Binghamton, Elmira and Watertown had endorsed the pact.

Engineer Plans Data To Support Indians

WASHINGTON (AP) — A consulting engineer for the Seneca Indians is preparing data to back up the Indians' proposal for an alternative to the planned flood-control dam at Kinzua, Pa.

An aide to Maj. Gen. E. C. Itchner, chief of Army Engineers, reported Monday the general had received a letter from Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, the engineer, saying he was at work on the information.

Itchner offered Morgan the use of any information from the Engineers' Pittsburgh and Ohio division offices that Morgan might need.

The Engineers previously had rejected the alternative plan as unfeasible. It would divert flood waters of the Allegheny River into Lake Erie.

Newman GOP Choice To Succeed Curran

NEW YORK (AP) — Manhattan Republicans closed ranks Monday night and elected Bernard Newman, a 50-year-old lawyer, as leader of their county organization.

Newman, chairman of the county committee's law committee, succeeds Thomas J. Curran, who held the post of leader for 18 years. Curran died last July 29.

Judge Has Excuse

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — William W. Hoffman had the best excuse possible for getting out of jury duty. He returned the mailed summons to the court clerk calling attention to a fact which had been overlooked. He is William W. Hoffman, the presiding judge.

Matter of FACT

When the seed-bearing pods of the Pac rubber tree ripen, they crack open with a loud noise. They open with such force that the seeds are sometimes thrown 100 feet away from the tree. Rubber growers believe the "explosion" of the pods and the resulting scattering of seeds is nature's way of getting the seeds out of the shadow of the mother tree and into the sunlight.

Ave, Rocky Have First Political Handshake

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Luis Marin of Puerto Rico was chatting in Spanish with Nelson A. Rockefeller, the Republican candidate for governor.

The two posed for news photographers as they talked. Then they were interrupted.

"Introduce me to your friend," said the smiling intruder to the Puerto Rican governor.

He was Democrat Gov. Harriman, who has to defeat Rockefeller to win reelection.

Actually, Harriman and Rockefeller, both millionaires, are old acquaintances. Their meeting Monday, however, was the first political handshake of the campaign between the two.

The incident occurred at the 10th anniversary celebration of the Puerto Rican Labor Department's office in Manhattan.

Miiko Asks Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Miiko Taka, who played opposite Marlon Brando in "Sayonara," has asked for a divorce from actor Dale R. Ishimoto.

Miss Taka, a native of Seattle, charged cruelty in her complaint, filed Monday. She asked for $50 a month alimony and another $100 a month for support of two children.

Schenectady Bus Fares Going Up

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Fares on buses operated by the Schenectady Transportation Corp. will go up a nickel Sept. 14. The boost is expected to yield about $31,000 more a year in revenue.

The Public Service Commission authorized the company Monday to increase its local fares from 15 to 20 cents and add five cents to one-way fares on all suburban and inter-city routes.

Local fares apply to trips in Schenectady and Scotia and their suburbs. In addition, the company operates buses between Schenectady, Albany and Troy and between Albany and Altamont.

The price of 10-trip school tickets will be increased from 85 cents to $1 within Schenectady and from $3.60 to $4 for rides between Schenectady and Albany.

Remaining unchanged will be the 15-cent fare for special non-time trips from the General Electric Co. plant to Armory Place in the downtown business district.

In bidding for the increases, the company said it had lost almost $13,600 during the first half of 1958 because of declining revenues and rising operation costs. The company said it also had lost school bus transportation contracts amounting to about $27,500 a year.

Fireman Succumbs

MALONE, N. Y. (AP) — Volunteer fireman Melvin W. Martin, his left leg severed when hit by a fire truck Saturday, died in a hospital Monday.

Martin, 53, of North Bangor, was helping to run a hose line from a stream to a fire at a farm when he and another volunteer were hit by a truck from Dickinson Center.

The other fireman, Frederick H. Mullarney, 49, of North Bangor, still is hospitalized with multiple cuts and bruises. His condition is reported improved.

The fire destroyed a large barn and several small buildings on the farm of Gordon Parnapp, near North Bangor.

It takes a GIANT to set America in motion

This year millions of footloose travelers will buy tickets to romantic places. They'll pay several billion dollars to get where they're going by bus, plane, ship and train.

The transportation industry employs hundreds of thousands of people. It spends billions for equipment. It performs a gigantic task in carrying its passengers safely, surely and swiftly to their destinations.

Transportation space is possibly our most perishable product. An accommodation that has not been sold by the time a trip has begun is never sold. To help keep its product sold, transportation turns to another giant—the daily newspaper, the number one travel medium.

Last year the travel industry spent $58,266,000 in newspapers to attract the greatest number of ticket-buying travelers in history. More money is spent in newspapers—by all kinds of advertisers—because newspapers set people in motion—buying.

All business is local... and so are all newspapers

Police Say Two Confess $7,917 Holdup of Bank

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — State Police say two men held here have admitted the $7,917 holdup of the Central Trust Co. in Rochester.

A hooded bandit hid in a washroom at the bank last Aug. 29 and then flashed a sawed-off shotgun on a bank teller taking money to a night depository. The gunman fled with two bags of money. Another man served as a lookout.

Troopers identified the two as Merle G. Adams, 21, of nearby Baldwinsville, and George Livechi, 19, of Rochester.

Adams was arrested after an anonymous telephone tip led police to guns and ammunition taken in a burglary Saturday night at a store in Baldwinsville. Police said the guns were found under the pillow of Adams' bed.

Adams implicated Livechi as the masked man who held up the Rochester bank, police said. Livechi was picked up in Rochester and brought to Syracuse for questioning.

The money still is missing. Police said the shotgun was thrown from a bridge into the Genesee River. Each of the men has accused the other of taking the money, police said.

Adams is being held for grand jury action on a charge of third-degree burglary in the Baldwinsville case. Livechi was not along on this job, police said.

Both men probably will be turned over to Rochester authorities to face charges of armed robbery and grand larceny, police said.

Receive Registrations For Business Course

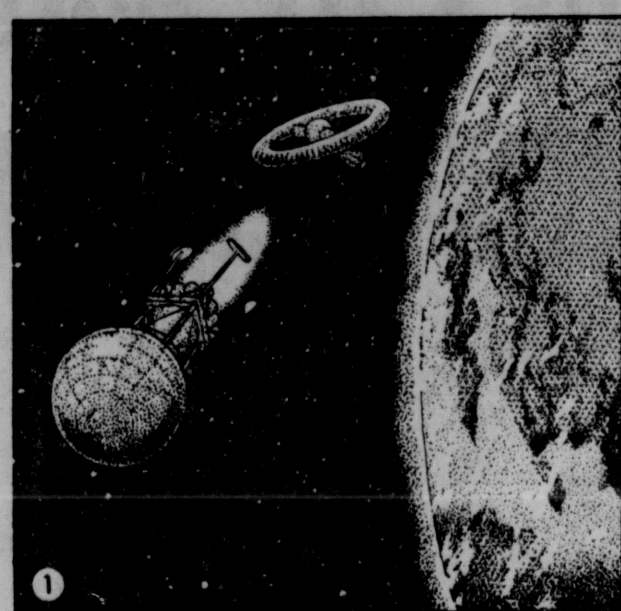

Advance registrations are now being accepted for the Small Business Management Course being sponsored by the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the Kingston High School and the State Department of Commerce.

In making this announcement today, Albert Kurdt, manager of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce suggested that registrations, including payment of a small fee for the entire course, be made early as only 25 persons can be accommodated. Hubert Hoderath, head of the Vocational Department at the Kingston High School, will handle registrations. However, inquiries regarding further information should be addressed to the Chamber of Commerce.

Five outstanding speakers in the field of small business management have been secured for the five weekly sessions starting on Tuesday, September 23rd. All sessions will be held in the Civic Room of the Governor Clinton Hotel. The names of five speakers and subjects to be covered will be available sometime this week.

OUTWARD TO THE STARS (19)—First Men to the Moon

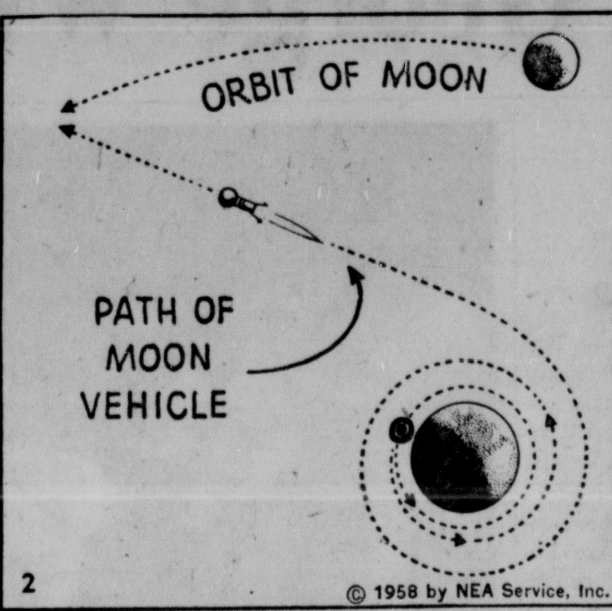

By Don Oakley and Ralph Lane

(1) Assembly completed, fuel and equipment loaded and crew installed in their spherical cabin, the Moon rocket is ready for its pioneer voyage.

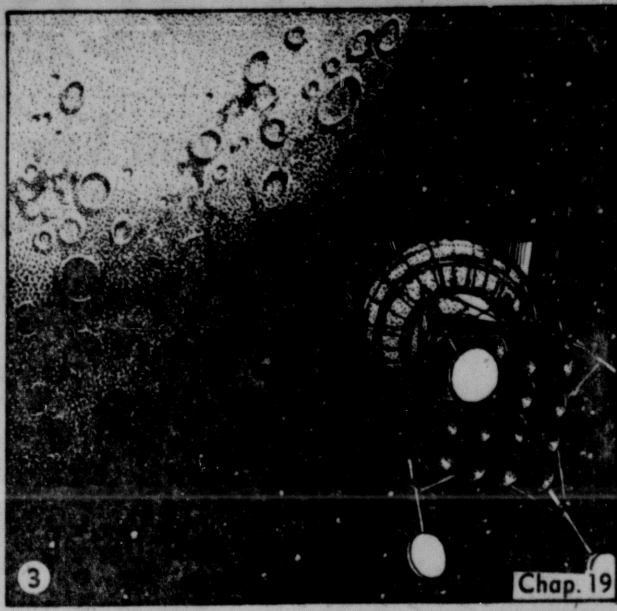

Already moving some 15,000 miles per hour alongside the space station in a two-hour orbit around the Earth, the Moon ship ignites its rockets and pulls slowly away from the mother base. Still a satellite of Earth, it accelerates under timed rocket firings in a widening spiral orbit.

When at the precise position in reference to the Moon, a final blast of its rockets brings it up to escape velocity (approximately 25,000 m.p.h.) and the Moon ship hurls itself away from Earth like a pebble from a cosmic slingshot.

(2) The ship must aim for a point in space where the Moon will be some two-and-a-half days later (the time required for a one-way journey), at a time when the Moon is closest to Earth, 221,463 miles away. Any error in course can be corrected by using the rockets.

Now at escape velocity, but still under the influence of Earth's gravity, the ship coasts with decreasing momentum until the gravity of the Moon takes over. It then begins falling with mounting speed toward the Moon. The trip could be shortened by using power, but this method makes the most economical use of fuel.

(3) The first manned ship will probably not attempt a landing on that body, but will remain in orbit around it for a period, investigating and photographing its surface, particularly that side never seen from Earth. An actual landing will come later, after more is learned of the Moon in its "virgin" state, and before chance contamination by bacteria carried from Earth distorts the findings of scientists. To return to the space station, the same procedure will be used as at the beginning. This time a velocity of only about 5,400 m.p.h. will be required to escape Moon's pull.

Next: Landing on the Moon.

Price Supports Help U.S. Cut Surplus Buying

WASHINGTON (AP) — Uncle Sam has been able to trim his purchases or surplus dairy products by nearly 15 per cent since government price supports were reduced last April 1.

The total quantity bought under the support program since that date is 550 million pounds. This compared with 642 million pounds in the likeperiod last year.

In reducing supports to the minimum level permitted by law, Secretary of Agriculture Benson said he hoped surpluses moving into government hands would be reduced and that more would move into consumer markets. This is turning out to be the result.

The sharpest reduction in purchases has been in cheese. Less butter also is being bought, but more nonfat dry milk.

Financial Sheet 'Quaint'

NEW YORK (AP)—Broadway's smash hit "The Music Man" goes in for prop realism, even when it comes to reading matter. In one scene, members of the cast supposedly read newspapers current in the year 1912. Journalistic makeup has changed drastically since then, but Director Morton Da Costa found one suitable periodical. Across the footlights, Da Costa decided, the financial daily, the Wall Street Journal, looks like a small-town Iowa newspaper of long ago.

Broilers Are Given Executive Treatment in Maine Capital

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Both the Maine broiler industry and the state's First Lady are young and vital.

Although the industry started only 20 years ago, the five major broiler plants in the state process between 30 and 40,000 chickens a day. We visited three of them, including the ultra modern U. S. government inspected Lipman plant in Augusta.

At historic Blaine House in Augusta, the official home of the governor, we lunched in the family dining room with the youthful and winning Jane Muskie, wife of Gov. Edmund S. Muskie.

Barbecued broilers were the entree. It was a hot day, but inside the tree-shaded Executive Mansion, life seemed serene—the friendly and attractive First Lady, the beautiful but homelike room, and some of the state's finest foods.

Our down-East friend Marjorie Tucker, the governor's housekeeper with tightly-reined sense of humor, gave us the recipes:

Jane Muskie's Barbecued Broilers (Yield: 4-6 servings)

Two Maine broilers (2 to 2½ pounds), left whole; salt and pepper, 3 tablespoons butter, ½ teaspoon allspice, 2 small onions stuck with 6 cloves, 1 bay leaf, 2 stalks celery, ½ cup boiling water, celery leaves.

Wash and dry broilers. Singe if necessary. Rub inside and out with salt, pepper and allspice. Rub with butter. Place one onion and one celery stalk, coarsely chopped, in each cavity. Place in baking dish, add boiling water and cook in moderate (350-375 degree F.) oven for 40 to 45 minutes, basting constantly with barbecue sauce. Remove to hot platter and garnish with celery leaves. Drain sauce and serve separately.

Jane Muskie's Barbecue Sauce (Yield: ¾ cup)

Combine four tablespoons butter, ½ teaspoon rosemary, ½ cup chopped parsley, 1 clove garlic, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, ½ cup chicken stock (broth or bouillon cube and water), salt to taste. Simmer for 10 minutes.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Lobster cocktail, oven-barbecued broilers, parsley potatoes, braised carrots, green beans vinaigrette, yeast rolls, butter or margarine, huckleberry tarts with vanilla ice cream.

SUCCULENT barbecued chicken is served in the Executive Mansion by Mrs. E. S. Muskie, wife of the governor of Maine.

Tuscaroras Win Time To Carry on Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — New York's Tuscarora Indians have won time to carry to the U. S. Supreme Court their bid to block the state from taking tribal land for the Niagara Power project.

Justice John Marshall Harlan of the nation's highest court granted the Tuscaroras a conditional stay Monday pending an appeal to the full court.

However, Harlan directed the New York Power Authority to proceed in condemning Indian land to be used in erecting power lines. In a hearing before Harlan last Saturday, authority spokesmen said the authority would suffer sharp financial losses if the power line work was not begun by Sept. 15.

The authority also told Harlan it could defer to at least mid-October other parts of the 625-million-dollar project without serious inconvenience or financial loss. The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New York City has authorized the power authority to take about 1,383 acres of the Tuscarora reservation. The Tuscaroras intend to appeal that decision.

Drama by Indians

BRANTFORD, Ont. (AP)—Now an ancient federation of U. S.-Canadian Indian tribes has organized to do dramatic productions. The Six Nations Theatrical Guild launched the project with a two-hour play, "The Coming of the Delaware," presented at the Oneida Mohawk Forest theater. It was written by Lorna E. Thomas of the Six Nations, which includes the Oneidas, Tuscaroras, Onondagas, Senecas, Mohawks and Cayugas.

Non-Vulnerable Sacrifice Pays

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

In a recent duplicate, all North-South pairs reached four hearts and made either four or five, if allowed to play the hand there.

When five was made the usual play was for declarer to ruff the opening club lead, draw trumps with two leads and lead a spade to the ten.

Later on he would cash dummy's king of spades and note the fall of the eight from East. He would get back to his own hand and lead the jack of spades, West would cover with the queen and dummy would ruff. East would have to drop the nine and South's seven spot would be high.

At a couple of tables East was smart enough to realize that he had too much stuff in three suits and too little in hearts to afford to stay out of the bidding. He doubled for takeout at his first turn to bid.

South still went to four hearts, but now West was able to go to five diamonds.

One West got out for down one. He lost a diamond and a heart, but guessed the spade situation and lost only one trick there. The other West misguessed the spades and went down two tricks, but his minus score of 300 was still good for one point from top.

Shooting Starts Next Month for Antler Deer and Bear Hunters

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The big game season for bear and antler deer opens in northern New York Oct. 25 and the Conservation Department predicts good hunting.

The northern season will end Dec. 2. In other areas, the season will run from Nov. 17 to Dec. 2. On the last day, hunters may take a deer of either sex in any of the open-season counties except Putnam, where a special permit is needed.

The limit is a deer and a bear. The bear population, increasing rapidly in recent years, has reached the point where the big animals are a frequent sight in the Adirondacks, foraging in garbage dumps and generally making themselves a nuisance.

Conservation men said they expected the bear season to be very good. The deer catch should be good in most areas.

E. L. Cheatum, chief of the department's Bureau of Game, said dogs and heavy winter snows had cut the deer herds in some western counties.

Archers may try their luck in the northern zone from Oct. 11 to Oct. 24. Elsewhere, their season will run from Nov. 3 to Nov. 16.

In Westchester County, archers may take a deer of either sex from Nov. 15 to Dec. 31.

The northern zone includes Clinton, Essex, Franklin, Hamilton, Jefferson, Lewis, St. Lawrence and Warren counties and the northern sections of Fulton, Herkimer, Oneida, Oswego, Saratoga and Washington counties.

Big game hunting is banned in Montgomery County and on Long Island and in certain parts of Albany, Monroe and Erie counties.

To hunt a deer of either sex in Putnam Dec. 2, hunters must apply by mail to the county clerk for a permit after Oct. 1. A total of 3,600 permits will be issued.

Triplets Take Playoff Opener

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The better - late-than-never Binghamton Triplets are playing again like they used to — and just in time.

The Triplets, who fell apart after winning the Eastern League's Northern Division title in the first half of the season, shut out Williamsport, 9-1, Monday night in the first game of the semifinal playoff.

York edged Lancaster, 3-2, in the first game of the other semifinal playoff, this to determine the Southern Division champion.

The two semifinal winners will meet in another best-of-five series for the Richardson Cup.

Jerry Kettle (10-5) opposes either Bill Short or Jerry Neal for Binghamton in the second game tonight at Williamsport.

It will be Bill Garcia (11-8) for York, against Bob Paffel (14-9) tonight at Lancaster.

Ancient Vim In Showdown With Columbia

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP) — The shoe was on the other foot today in the America's Cup trials.

And the foot belonged to Vim, a 19-year-old yacht that's much too busy to look at the calendar.

They said Vim wouldn't be anything more than a trial-horse for the three new U. S. 12-meter sloops built to compete for the honor of defending the cup.

But two of the new boats, Easterner and Weatherly, already have been eliminated from the trials by the seven-man selection committee.

And today Vim was heading out to the starting line for the fifth race in her current showdown series with Columbia—fresh from a do-or-die victory Monday.

The selection committee has until Saturday night to make up its mind and pick one of the two to defend the cup against England's Screeper starting Sept. 20.

This may be the day, with the winner getting the big prize. Or the showdown might carry right down to the deadline. Nobody but the selection committee knows the answer to that one.

Vim bounced back Monday by handing newly built Columbia a trouncing over a 24-mile triangular course. The margin was a minute and 35 seconds, representing more than 100 yards of white-capped ocean.

That tied the current series, a grueling test of man and boat, at two victories each. Overall, elder Vim has a 5-3 edge in match races with Columbia.

Never before in the history of the America's Cup has a set of two-boat final trials gone as far as this one. It's quite a tribute to Vim, owned by John N. Mathews of Oyster Bay, N. Y., and her crack crew.

Bucs-SF Series Decides 2nd Leaders Undecided, End Near

Crucial Three-Game Set Favors Murtaugh Squad

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates, who haven't been this high in National League standings since 1944, open a three-game showdown for second place tonight with the slumping San Francisco Giants.

The Pirates took a 2½ game hold on the runnerup spot by beating Cincinnati 4-1 Monday night in the only game scheduled in the majors. That means the Giants, who have lost five of their last six, must sweep at Pittsburgh to regain second place in the standings.

Suspended Games

They'll complete a suspended game of July 27 tonight before starting a regularly scheduled game. Play resumes with the score tied 3-3 and the Bucs at bat in the eighth inning.

Right-hander Bob Porterfield (2-6) is Manager Danny Murtaugh's choice for the completion of the six-week old suspension for the Pirates, who have won six of their last nine. Righty Paul Giel (4-4) is the Giants' choice.

In the regularly scheduled game, the Pirates, who stand 9-10 against the Giants for the season, will go with rookie right-hander George Witt (8-2) against Stu Miller (5-7). Witt, who shut out Milwaukee 1-0 in 10 innings with a five-hitter in his last start, has won six straight. No one has won seven in a row this season in the NL.

Raydon Wins

It was Curt Raydon, another rookie right-hander, who beat the Redlegs. Although giving up only four hits, he needed Don Gross' hitless mop up after the Reds scored an unearned run in the seventh on a pair of errors by Dick Stuart.

Raydon (8-4) also singled for his first major league hit, in 36 at bats, during a three-run pirate fifth against loser Tom Acker (3-3).

Clemente Triple-Happy

Roberto Clemente hit three triples, tying the modern major league record for one game. He's the 31st major leaguer to do it.

The first place Milwaukee Braves, now seven games ahead, are at home tonight with Curt Willey (9-5) facing Cincinnati's Alex Kellner (5-3). Any combination of Milwaukee victories and/or Pirate defeats totaling 10 gives the Braves their second straight pennant.

The Chicago Cubs, who just swept three from San Francisco, are at St. Louis behind either Dave Hillman (4-7) or Taylor Phillips (7-8) tonight. Sam Jones, the first to strike out 200 in the NL since 1941, goes after his 13th victory for the Cards. He's lost 11.

Los Angeles and the last place Phillies also have a July 27 game to complete at Philadelphia. It's Johnny Kippert (3-5) for the Dodgers in the suspended game. The Phils, leading 2-1 in the sixth inning, will go with Jim Hearn (4-3).

'35' Club to Meet

The regular meeting of the Siskler '35' Club will be held at 8 p. m. tomorrow in the club's meeting room at the "Brick House," 62 O'Neil Street. All members are urged to attend.

World Series to Start in NL City

CHICAGO (AP) — Commissioner Ford Frick Monday announced the 1953 World Series will open Wednesday, Oct. 1 in the city of the National League pennant winner.

With Milwaukee and New York having all but clinched their respective races, the first and second games will be played in Milwaukee, Oct. 3 was set aside for travel with the series resuming in New York on Oct. 4, 5, 6.

If more than five games are needed, Oct. 7 will be used for travel to Milwaukee with the sixth game being played Oct. 8 and seventh on Oct. 9.

All games will start at 1 p. m. local time except for the Sunday date in New York which will start at 2 p. m.

Ticket prices will be the same as last year.

Only the Braves and Yankees were authorized to print series tickets. However, Frick also invited representatives of the Chicago White Sox, Pittsburgh Pirates and San Francisco Giants to sit in on the meeting.

Majors Not Interested in Expansion

CHICAGO (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick was definitely on notice today that the National and American leagues have no immediate interest in expansion.

Frick had hoped to use today's joint session as a sounding board for his long nurtured idea of two 10-team leagues, which eventually would blossom into three eight-team circuits. However, he has been told in no uncertain terms that the time for expansion is not yet ripe. In fact, it may be a long time off.

The American League, in a special session Monday, unanimously opposed spreading out beyond its eight clubs.

As Frank Lane of Cleveland put it, "There was absolutely no sentiment for expansion on the part of any club."

The National League, which Frick hoped, and still hopes, would reincorporate New York into its charter and add another large city, did not even bother to hold a meeting. There was a sort of get-together, but the business concerned only schedule making for 1953.

Only two clubs—Milwaukee and Chicago — strongly favor expansion. The others are either dead

Bronx Bombers Can Wrap It Up Over Weekend

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

The American League season has only two weeks to run, but the batting, home run, runs-batted-in and strikeout champions still are undecided.

Pete Runnels of the Boston Red Sox leads in the bat race with 322 Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees leads in home runs with 39. Jackie Jensen of the Red Sox is tops in RBI with 113. Early Wynn of the Chicago White Sox leads in strikeouts with 155.

The batting race is a five-man battle. Runnels, 30, has a 5-point spread over Bob Cerv of Kansas City (318) with Vic Power, Cleveland, and Harvey Kuenn, Detroit, tied for third at 317.

Williams 5th

The fifth man is Ted Williams of the Red Sox, who took the 1957 title with 388. Williams, 40, figures to get back into the thick of it tonight, after a 15-day layoff because of sickness.

Neither Runnels, Cerv, Kuenn nor Power ever has won an AL batting title.

Mantle's only serious competition for the homer title appears to be Roy Sievers of Washington, the defending champ. Sievers has hit 36. He won in 1957 with 42.

Mantle has 16 games to play, Sievers has 18.

Sievers Threatens

Sievers also has a shot at retaining the RBI title. He won with 114 last season and has 100 at present. Jensen, the leader for the past two months, has driven in only three runs in his last 13 games. Sievers has brought home seven over the same span. Rocky Colavito of Cleveland is third with 96.

Only one game was scheduled in the majors Monday. Pittsburgh won it, beating Cincinnati 4-1.

Federated Sportsmen's Clubs of Ulster County will consider a resolution designed to arouse maximum support for measures connected with the problem of erosion cancer at their September meeting.

Chet Joy, chairman of the Fact Finding and Stream Improvement Committee of the Federation, says that "lack of cooperation and correct procedures have played a large part in bringing on a condition that is a disgrace to conservation practices and leads nowhere but to regret in the future."

"It is time we wake up and face the facts and see erosion in its true form—a cancer that is destroying our natural resources because of laxity and the full realization of its far reaching repercussions in the future," says Joy.

"We want to see the eradication of this erosion cancer here in the beautiful Catskill mountain area before it gets altogether out of hand," said Joy. "We see the facts and stand firm in our desire for better conservation practices and so present the following resolution:

"We insist that channeling and dredging of fast mountain streams only add to erosion and siltation by creating a faster runoff in the wet seasons, and unnatural barren streambeds in the dry season, this doing great damage to our water supply reservoirs and the Hudson river. This practice has to come to an end.

• Calls for Stream Improvement:

"Stream improvement structures are the answer to erosion and siltation. Our State Department of Conservation has the knowledge and literature available in proper structures to meet all conditions. Conservation engineers have studied erosion and siltation for years but lack funds to combat conditions that are steadily growing worse. Approved structures are principally three types—the V dam, deflector and cribbing. The need for such structures at the present time is urgent.

"An appropriation is most urgently needed with the realization that our streamways are as important as our highways. Funds to come from the General Fund and/or the federal public works appropriation. They are to be used for study and construction of stream improvement structures adequate to take care of the situation in the Esopus valley watershed.

• Five Point Program:

"We propose a survey by Conservation Department engineers to start as soon as possible with emergency measures in the following order:

1. To cease all dredging and channeling of troutstreams unless authorized by the Conservation Department.
2. To correct the situation near the dyke at Mt. Tremper.
3. To correct erosion conditions on the main Esopus and feeder streams.
4. To study all proposed highway construction in the Catskill watershed and its relation to streams in the area, with stream improvement structures planned accordingly.
5. Literature on these stream improvement practices should be sent to all departments for better understanding and cooperation in arriving at a successful and early conclusion."

This resolution, says Joy, is the result of facing the facts from a conservation viewpoint, with the intent of starting an effective program to repair and prevent further damage to our trout streams, property and water resources in Ulster County.

NFA 'Has The Makings This Year,' Hemingway

Newburgh Free Academy, which could win but one game in five starts last season, "has the makings of a pretty good team," says Head Coach Dan Hemingway.

The Goldbacks, drilling for their Sept. 20 opener with Beacon will be trying to improve on last year's 1-2-2 record. Ninety-five boys turned out and from this group Hemingway expects to carry 33 varsity players.

Newburgh figures to be quite strong in the line where Hemingway can count on five of seven regulars back. Only at left guard and left tackle does he have worry.

Ralph DePew and LeRoy Riley are returning ends, while tackle Bill Adam and guard Rick D'Addio and center Jack Court, who will be back. Charlie Cotton, who filled in at quarterback occasionally last year, shapes up as Bill Conway's replacement at the signal post. Another back is speedster Gordon Fox, a track star.

Hard-running fullback Don Kirkland has graduated, but Carl DiDonato has shown promise and may be the sleeper in the backfield. Carl was hurt in the Troy game last year and was used sparingly.

Neil Warren and John Pliego alternated at right last year until injuries and flu took their toll. Joe Fabrizio filled in nicely, however, and appears capable of handling the job full time.

Cronin-Smith Take PGA Event

Home pro Bob Cronin and his partner, Woody Smith, slogged through high winds and an all-day rain to post a 13-under-par pro-amateur 59 to win Monday's Northeastern New York PGA tourney at Queen Village Country Club in Warrensburg.

They teamed for a 30 on the front side, then sizzled home with a 29 to win by six shots. Second place went to Tony Fortino, Glens Falls pro and his teammate, Bob Nolan with a 32-33-65.

Cronin and Fortino led the pro parade with 74s. Cronin toured his tight 6,300 yard layout in 38-36 and Fortino carved a neat 2-under 34 on the front nine only to sky to a 40 coming home. Jim Murray of Amsterdam was third with 36-41-77.

Fortino and Guy Farina, Caroga Lake, posted eagles on the par-four, 318-yard eighth hole. Fortino drove the green and then dropped a 30-footer. Farina pitched from 40 yards to collect his eagle.

Yackel Reports To Bruins Monday

BOSTON (AP) — Ken Yackel, 26-year-old former University of Minnesota forward, hopes to become the first American-born player to make the grade with the Boston Bruins since goalie Brimsek two decades ago.

Yackel, a school teacher in Minneapolis where he also coached hockey and football, signed a National Hockey League contract with the Bruins Monday. He will report for the start of fall practice at Boston Garden Sept. 14.

Dow Finsterwald Cards 267 to Win Utah Open

Par-Plays Takes Down $2,000 1st; Hawkins Second

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., who prefers a no-nonsense finish in the money rather than gamble for first, played his cautious brand of golf Monday and slipped into the championship of the $17,000 Utah Open.

He carded a 66 for a 267 total and $2,000 first money.

Finsterwald, a 1958 PGA champion, trailed Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., by two strokes — 201 to 199—going into the final round of the 72-hole affair at the Salt Lake Country Club.

But Hawkins' putter went cold on the 15th and 16th holes. Finsterwald caught him with pars.

On the canyon-crossed 18th, Finsterwald played two careful shots to the green. Hawkins gambled with a long wood over the canyon but was short with his approach and long on a pitch. He parred for a 69 and a 268 total.

Hawkins split second and third money with Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., who carded 66 in his final round for a 268 also.

Bill Collins of Baltimore was fourth with a 68 and a 271 for $1,000.

Playoffs Start Tonight in I.L.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The International League gets down to the business tonight of getting a champion to face the American Assn. titlist in the up coming little world series.

The top four teams in the final standings begin playoffs for the honors, with league leading Montreal facing fourth place Columbus and second place Toronto meeting third place Rochester.

The two winners of this best-of-seven series will meet in a best-of-seven series. The winner then will face the victor of a similar playoff situation in the American Assn.

Last year, Buffalo, which finished second during regular season play, won the I.L. Shaughnessy playoffs, then lost to Denver in the series, 3-1.

Buffalo wound up seventh this year.

Montreal, who finished the season 2½ games ahead of second place Toronto, sends Tom LaSorda (16-6) against Columbus' Benie Daniels (14-6) while Toronto has Ernie Broglio (10-3) going against Rochester's Gary Blaylock (14-0).

Bank Note Upset In Saratoga Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thistle Hill Don, racing to his sixth victory of the season, upset highly favored Bank Note in the $1,600 Green Island Trot Monday night at Saratoga Raceway.

Thistle Hill Don won by three lengths over Phoebe Darnley. Bank Note was third. The time was 2:08 on a slow track.

The winner, owned by Walter F. Padgett of Hornell and driven by Bob McPhillips, paid $12.80.

At Yonkers Raceway, Adios H. scored by a half length over Senator Byrd in the feature Class AA pace. The 3-year-old colt, timed in 2:03 4/5, returned $7.30. Adios H., owned by the S. A. Wathen & Son Stable of Ft. Fairfield, Me., was reined by Wendell Wathen Jr.

Diamond Saw, with Clyde Giege in the sulky, won the feature race at Vernon Downs and paid $46. The victory was the sixth for Giege in his last seven starts.

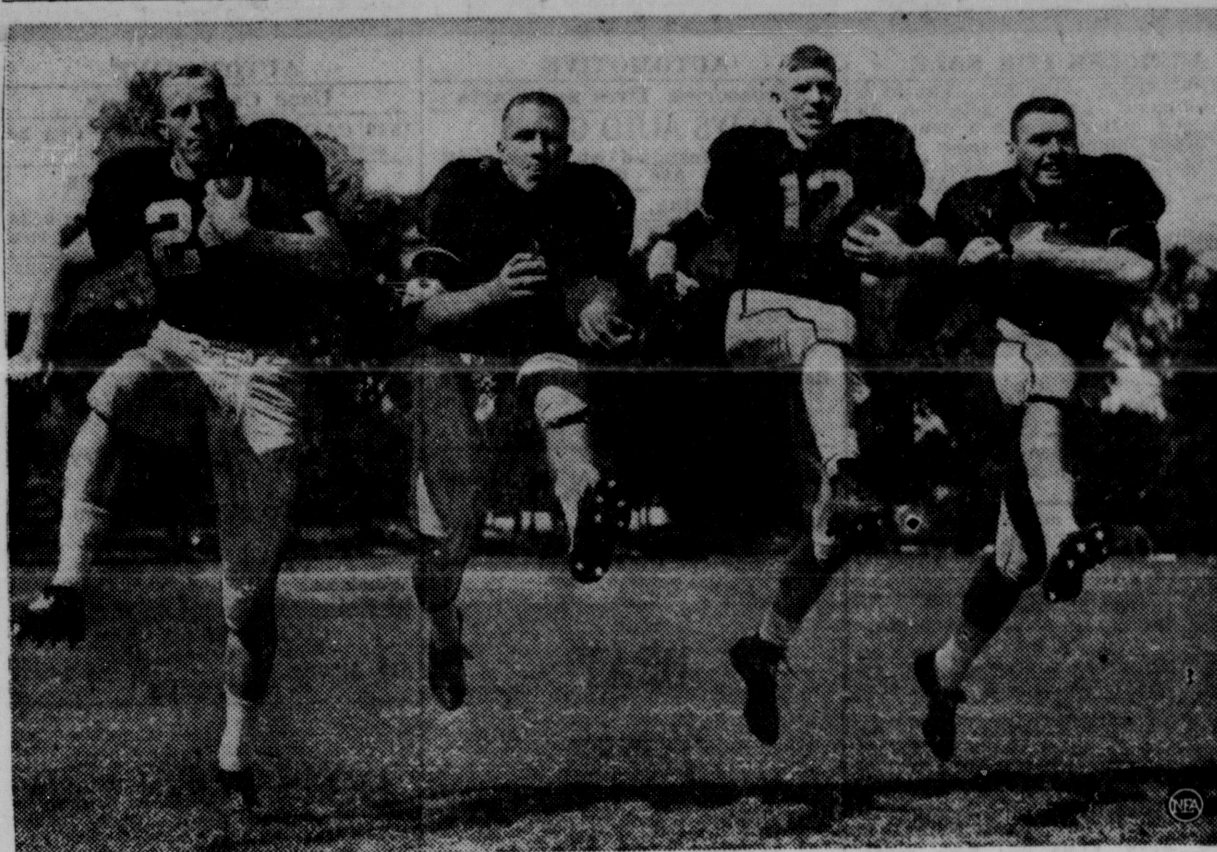

Flashover, a 5-year-old driven by owner James Curran, triumphed in the $1,200 feature trot at Monticello Raceway. He paid $12.10.

Blazer Hanover, owned by T. J. Zornow of Pittsford, won the feature $1,300 Class B Pace at Batavia Downs. Levi Harner did the driving. The winner, timed in 2:07 1-5, returned $9.20.

Scrimmage Slated

ITHACA, N. Y. (AP) — Cornell University's football team, its workout cut short by rain Monday, hopes to scrimmage later in the week.

Coach George K. (Lefty) James said he was pleased with the showing of Center Ed Magliscau, a 200-pound junior from North Tonawanda, in the team's first scrimmage Saturday.

Syracuse, Navy Vie in Oyster Bowl in 1959

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) —Navy and Syracuse will be opponents in the 12th annual Oyster Bowl game at Norfolk, Va., Oct. 10, 1959.

The announcement was made jointly today by Melvin T. Blasingham of Norfolk's Shrine Temple, sponsors of the game, and Capt. Slade Cutter, athletic director at the U. S. Naval Academy.

The game, the first meeting in history between the two big eastern independents, originally was scheduled to be played in Baltimore. It was shifted to Norfolk at the request of the Oyster Bowl committee by agreement with both schools concerned.

It will be Navy's fourth appearance in the annual football classic at Norfolk. The Middies met Duke in the 1954 Oyster Bowl, Georgia last year and will play Tulane in Norfolk Oct. 18 this year.

The 1959 game will inaugurate a two-year series between Syracuse and Navy with the schools scheduled to play at Syracuse in 1960.

RPI Senior Loses Life in Accident

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — A college senior was killed early today when the convertible foreign sports car in which he was riding flipped over on a curve.

He was identified as Lee Stough, 21, of Vienna, Va., a senior mechanical engineering student at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in nearby Troy.

The driver of the car was identified by police as Thomas L. Duncan, 20, of Lyndhurst, Ohio. Duncan, a senior chemical engineering student at RPI, was hospitalized.

Both youths lived at the Delta Kappa Epsilon house in Troy. Police said the two were pinned under the small car when it overturned on a curve on the outskirts of the city. Police lifted the car to release them.

Taking Their Bumps

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Nine Syracuse University football players are nursing bumps and bruises.

The nine, roughed up in scrimmage Saturday, watched Monday as rain forced the squad indoors. Two are regulars. Right half-back Gerry Schwedes suffered a bruised knee and center Dave Applehof strained his back.

Diploma in One

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. (NEA) — The Moon Brook Country Club of Jamestown has devised a novel scheme to provide college scholarships for boys who win individual flights in its Junior Invitational Golf Tournament.

$63,500 Check and Process Server Await Aragon

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Art Aragon, less feebly tagged by a process server than by Carmen Basilio, still had a paycheck waiting for him at Olympic Auditorium today.

And possibly a process server too. Basilio, the man who flogged Aragon for eight rounds last Friday and won by a knockout, picked up his check for $65,976.40 Monday. He planned to take his family to Disneyland today and is expected to head east, by way of Yosemite National Park, Wednesday or Thursday.

There was a check for $63,500 ready for Aragon, but the Golden Boy didn't show. An Olympic spokesman said the check would still be there today.

A process server was at the payroll ceremony, waiting to hand Art papers in a $20,000 suit brought by Texas promoter Jimmy Parks. The server waited for about two hours, then gave up.

Parks' suit results from a proposed San Antonio fight that was never held. Dick Goldstein, who was to have been Aragon's opponent, accused Art of asking him to take a dive. Aragon was convicted of fight-fixing charges, but the charges were dropped after he won a new trial.

The Aragon-Basilio match produced a new California gross gate record of $236,521.10 and a new net gate record of $203,078.10. The recent Harris-Patterson heavyweight title fight, also at Wrigley Field, established the previous gross record, $234,183.25.

Dupas Chants For Akins Go, Trims Gorman

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Slick boxing Ralph Dupas started the chant today for a crack at welterweight champion Virgil Akins' title but admitted he needed another bout or two before pressing his claim.

Dupas, the No. 6 contender from New Orleans, returned to action Monday night after a four month layoff and posted a 10-round decision over unexpectedly tough Johnny Gorman, 22-year-old New Yorker.

Judges Frank Kercheval and Pete Gairruso had Dupas a 7-3 winner. Referee Eddie Wolfe had Dupas the winner 6-3-1. The AP card agreed with Wolfe's.

"I think I'm back on the road now," Dupas said. "I was satisfied with my showing. I want to meet Akins and I'll be ready for him or anybody else after a couple of fights."

The victory was the 69th for the 22-year-old Dupas who has lost only eight and fought six draws. Gorman took his eighth setback against 28 victories.

12 Airmen Killed As Two B52 Jets Collide in Mid-Air

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — A giant B52 jet bomber sliced into the side of another at sundown Monday and both planes crashed in flames near a busy highway. Twelve of the 16 men aboard were killed.

A 200-pound chunk of landing gear sailed through the air, smashed through a service station sign and skidded to rest on the shoulder of Highway 2, a main link between Spokane and Seattle.

None on Ground Hurt
The roar of the crash, flying debris and the explosion as the planes hit the ground terrified two fleeing service station attendants and two customers, along with patrons of a nearby tavern. But no one on the ground was hurt.

The eight-million-dollar B52s, prime atom bomb carriers of the Strategic Air Command, were making routine landings at Fairchild Air Force Base when they collided about 1,500 feet over the highway.

The B52s were carrying some classified materials but officials said these did not include nuclear weapons.

Joe Martella, a service station attendant, said both planes were turning at the time.

Tremendous Roar
"I looked up when I heard a tremendous roar from the engines of one plane," he said. "The pilot seemed to be trying to get out of the way. Then they hit. The wing of one hit the other right behind the cockpit and it looked like it was cut in two." Martella and the station owner, Mike Anderson, ran across the highway and dived into a ditch.

The planes were less than two miles from the Fairchild runway when they collided.

Highland Man Is Fined $200 on Assault Charge

John Bordin, 48, of Highland who was indicted by the grand jury on an assault, second degree, charge on Monday afternoon entered a plea of guilty to third degree assault in County Court. Judge Bruhn sentenced him to a year in the county jail and imposed a fine of $200. The jail sentence was suspended, the fine paid.

Bordin, charged with having assaulted Bruno Tamborin on May 28, 1957, had previously entered an innocent plea. Through his counsel, Andrew W. Lent, he changed his plea to guilty to the lesser charge which was acceptable to the Court and Assistant District Attorney John Gotelli. Bail was exonerated.

In suspending the jail sentence Judge Bruhn took into consideration a good record of the defendant and also recommendation of good character from two residents of Highland.

All other cases which had adjourned to Monday afternoon were put over until Tuesday.

List Child Census Totals at 4,377; Increase of 300

The child census figures for Saugerties Central School system nearing completion under the direction of Miss N. Leona Hogan show a total of 4,377 children in the school district from birth to 18 years. This is an increase of 300 over last year.

At this time last year the census showed a total of 4,077. Last year in September there were 2,146 enrolled in the local system. The tentative enrollment figure for this September is 2,346, an increase of 200 over last fall. It is anticipated that the enrollment this fall may be slightly higher.

The increase in the number of preschool children September, 1958, over September, 1957, is 75. The census indicates that there will be approximately 175 more children of school age in the district next fall than there are this fall even if no new families move into this area. This would make a total enrollment next fall of approximately 2,521.

Two Sweeps Feature Dart League Opener

ville; Ruby at Cedar Grove and American Legion at Cementon. League President Virgil Finger announced that some teams are still negligent in reporting scores following the games on Monday night. He emphasized that scores should be reported to him by phone as soon as possible after the completion of the games, and no later than 11 p. m. Both home and visiting teams must report the scores.

Carmer not Cramer

In a report about a new book on Hudson Valley folklore written by a Saugerties school teacher and about to be released, the name of Carl Carmer was verbatimly transposed to Cramer. Carmer is a noted author and historian who resides at his home Octagon House, Irvington-on-Hudson. He is a well-known authority on Hudson Valley history.

Carmer has written the foreword for the book, "Teacup Tales" by Miss Pauline Hommel of Saugerties.

Port Ewen Corps Wins Capital District Meet

The Colonial Cadets of Port Ewen were judged winners of the first fall competition of the Capital District Junior Drum Corps Council at Ravena Park Sunday.

The Port Ewen corps garnered 95.1 points compared with second place Catskill Boys' Club Drum Corps which received 91.9 points.

Judging was on inspection, cadence, marching and maneuvering, bugling and drumming. The second competition will be held in Catskill Sunday on the high school grounds at 3 p. m. Prior to the competitions a parade through Catskill Village will start at 2 p. m.

Woodstock Area News

LISA TIANO, Correspondent

True Substance Topic At Christ Scientist

Recognition that true substance is spiritual, brings individual growth and progress—this fact will be stressed at the Christian Science service in Woodstock Sunday.

Bible readings in the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" will include the following (I John 2:15): "Love not the world, neither the things are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him."

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy includes this (239:16-18, 29): "To ascertain our progress, we must learn where our affections are placed and whom we acknowledge and obey as God. . . . The objects we pursue and the spirit we manifest reveal our standpoint, and show what we are winning."

The Golden Text is from II Corinthians (4:18): "The things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal."

Ladies Guild Plans Meeting September 17

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Guild of St. Gregory's Episcopal Church will be held at the home of Mrs. Lamont W. Marvin, Wittenberg Road, Bearsville, on Wednesday, Sept. 17, at 3 p. m.

Father Swezy, vicar of St. Gregory's, invites all women of the parish to attend. An interesting program is planned.

Town Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Powell have moved into the former George Compton residence on Glasco Turnpike. They are coming to Woodstock from Pittsburgh, Pa. where Mr. Powell was a band leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Ilya Chamberlain of the Glasco Turnpike are spending several days in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Mathews and six children have moved to Newburgh where Mr. Mathews will have a new position with IBM. He was a member of the Woodstock school Board of Trustees.

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — It may never catch on as a deer-hunting tactic but John Scott, poultry farmer near Lincoln, captured a full grown mule deer with a lariat. After lassoing the animal which had wandered onto his farm, Scott and a companion threw the deer to the ground and tied it up in the manner of a calf ready for branding. In short order, the deer became the newest addition to a Lincoln zoo.

STOP the "Battle for the BATHROOM"
THERE'S NO NEED TO PUT UP WITH A SHORT SUPPLY OF HOT WATER ANY LONGER
... not when you can have all the hot water you want, whenever you want it. Rheem—the world's largest maker of automatic storage water heaters, has a new kind of heater that's just right for your family's needs—a water heater that's made to be seen. It's completely square, fits flush against the wall or next to appliances or cabinets. Sparkling color trim comes in Yellow, Pink, Turquoise, or Brushed Chrome. Can be easily painted any color you like.
The inside tank is lined with Rheemglas, the rustproof lining that will last and last. Designed to stand up better under all conditions by resisting the corrosive effect of tough, hot water chemicals.
P. S. We can install a new Rheem Water Heater in your home
P. P. S. Would you like to have that extra bathroom? We are willing and able to help you plan—to show you where to locate that second bath—and finance the complete installation.
